	Relation to the Change and Transfer Formalities of Two Properties		compliance with the undertakings relating to the change and transfer formalities of two properties currently in the process of the change and transfer (Properties), namely the: 23rd floor of Nanjing Huaqiao Building; and 6th and 7th floors of Caiyin Building located in Heping West Street in Beijing. In Dec. 2002, during the company's initial public offering of its A shares, the company undertook that immediate action would be taken to finalize the procedures for the change and transfer of four properties. However, the company has encountered many practical difficulties in completing the change and transfer formalities of the Properties, making it difficult for the company to estimate when it can complete the relevant formalities and to specify the deadline of the completion. As disclosed in the circular, the book value of the Properties only represents 0.0038 percent of the company's audited total assets for 2013 and 0.118 percent of the audited net assets of the company for 2013. Accordingly, the board is of the view that there would be no material adverse impact on the normal operation of the company if the company fails to fulfill the relevant undertakings.

Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be

	Resolution 5. Require Director Nominee with Environmental Experience	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted given that a director with environmental expertise related to mining would be of value to Freeport in light of ongoing environmental controversies related to the company's mining operations. Such a director could further enhance the board's oversight of the remediation of past environmental obligations and future environmental risks. Freeport provides substantial details regarding its environmental policies and management systems (including reporting on its environmental practices relating to the Grasberg mine in Papua, Indonesia) in its Form 10-K, its website, and its current sustainability report. Freeport's Board of Directors has a Corporate Responsibility Committee which oversees its sustainable development programs, and the board includes two new directors appointed in 2013, who have environmental risk oversight experience. However, Freeport has faced high profile controversies and divestment by pension funds due to the environmental impacts of the Grasberg mine, and expects to spend substantial sums annually to address remediation issues. While recognizing the company's board and management level oversight of environmental issues, we believe the addition of a director with extensive knowledge and experience relevant to mining could complement the skill sets and expertise currently on the board and further enhance the company's existing environmental risks oversight mechanisms..

	Resolution 4a. Reappoint Ernst & Young as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The non-audit consulting fees for the year were significant at £1,848,000 (last year it was £1,062,000) and being more than 1m and 25% of the audit fees of EUR 3,613,000 (our thresholds). The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services. This arrangement has the potential to open the auditor process to a wide range of conflicts of interest. In explanation, the company states that the Committee reviews the nature and volume of projects undertaken by the external auditors on a quarterly basis and the Committee Chairman pre-approves projects over EUR 100,000 or of an unusual nature. The overall volume of work is addressed by a target maximum of EUR 1,500,000 for each auditor; individual large projects taking the overall spend over this target will be approved by the Committee. During 2013 Ernst & Young were retained as reporting accountants on the Class 1 Circular relating to fleet acquisition. The Company states that Ernst & Young were uniquely well placed to carry out this work given their position as external auditors. The Committee agreed to their appointment and the fees of EUR 954,000 were not counted against the target. However, high non audit fees have been a feature for the last two years. If the fees are high again next year, we should vote against. The Group audit was last tendered on the incorporation of the IAG parent company in 2010. Unless new requirements are introduced, in the meantime, the Company intends to comply with the UK Corporate Governance Code requirement to tender the external audit at least every ten years and the transition arrangements that would require the audit to be tendered for the year 2020 at the latest

The Remuneration Policy has been disclosed on a voluntary basis and is not subject to a separate shareholder approval. We would have liked the Company to have submitted its Remuneration Policy for a separate binding or advisory vote. Whilst the Company is incorporated in Spain and is not required to do so, holders expect the UK-listed companies to follow UK best practice in this regard. When reviewing the Policy, we note that the Committee may grant awards in excess of the stated limits. However, the Company has confirmed that if it were to grant awards in excess of these limits to the current Directors, it would consult with investors as appropriate. • We are concerned that the EPS targets under the Performance Share Plan (PSP) are not sufficiently challenging. Under the EPS element, 10% of this part of the award will

The current consensus estimates from ThomsonONE are: FY 2014, 39c; FY 2015, 57c; FY 2016, 65c; FY 2017, 75c. • The company looks to have quite broad flexibility to go beyond the exceptional limit of 300% of salary if the remuneration committee considers it appropriate. The Company has stated that the Committee has no current intention of making awards in excess of the stated award sizes for the Executive Directors. If the Committee felt that it was necessary to use these exceptional provisions, it would consult with investors as appropriate. • Clawback applies to the bonus arrangements but it is not clear if they also apply to the PSP. • Retirement Benefit for the Board Chairman - In relation to the Non-Executive Chairman, as set out in the merger documentation, the conditions of the service contract with Iberia were taken into account at the time of the merger. This means that he will therefore continue to be entitled to a lump-sum retirement benefit in an amount of €2,800,000. The fund balance under the policy (including accrued interest) will be paid upon exit from the Company for any reason. • Total employee costs decreased by 5% from €4,341m to €4,123. Total remuneration paid to Directors (including Non-Executives) increased by 164% from €6,186,000 to €16,305,000. No dividends were paid either in 2012 or 2013.

Whilst there is sufficient independence on the board, our concern is that he should not chair or even sit on the remuneration committee (i.e it should comprise independent directors only) However (as large shareholders in the Company), we engaged with the company on this issue and it was very receptive to our points. The CEO advised that this was the first time it has been raised and admitted that the Company hadn't until now acknowledged the perceived conflict of the Company's external legal counsel chairing the Remuneration committee. This was because of his presence on board, they were already super sensitive to payments to Burstall and spend a lot of time considering any payments ensuring they are appropriate, at an arms length basis and commercially fair (i.e market based), Where there might be a significant amount of work required from Burstall, the rest of the board decide together. Jay Zammit also is aware of wants to avoid any conflicts. As far as him being chair of Remuneration committee the Company explained that this is because he brings a lot to this position. He's also on other boards so has good and personal experience on remuneration issues. Also, the rest of the remuneration committee are strong characters so even if he wanted, it would not be possible for Jay to get up to any funny business. Also, the CEO said that having been through one cycle of reviewing pay, the process starts by the collection of data from their consultants, MMK. This is a considered another mitigating factor to evidence that Jay is not able to over influence decision making. In summary, his presence on the Remuneration committee is not considered an issue by the company particularly as the Board has always considered it as vitally important to reduce/mitigate any perceived conflicts. However, our comments will be reviewed by the Board and based on the conversation we would be surprised if this issue has not been addressed by next year. The company is aware of our views that the reason for Jay Zammit chairing the committee should not solely be because he has the necessary experience. There are other directors who could provide the same value but without the conflicts (even if it means appointing new directors in their place)

Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a tender for audit) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, in accordance with the Financial Reporting Council's Guidance to Audit Committees published in September 2012, the Company proposes to put the Group's requirement for audit services out to tender once in each ten-year period, with the tender timed to coincide with the rotation of engagement of the lead audit partner. Such rotations take place every five years, with the next rotation scheduled for 2017/18.

We note that the quantitative environmental performance data in the 2012 Corporate Responsibility Report includes emissions data reported to the EPA, which is an improvement on last year. We would, however, like to see consolidated environmental performance data which covers all operations; not solely that which is required under mandatory reporting. Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least an audit Tender) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, in the annual report, the Audit Committee notes the changes to the Code and the recent report of the Competition Commission into the audit market, which should require FTSE 350 companies to put their audit out to tender every ten years, as well as the draft EU Regulation on auditor rotation. The Audit Committee does not anticipate carrying out an external audit tender earlier than the date of rotation of the incumbent senior statutory auditor, which is after the 31 December 2015 year end. At this point, if there has not been at least an audit tender it is likely we will vote against the incumbent auditors.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

	Resolution 6.1. Elect CHENG , CHIN - TIEN, with Shareholder No. 21685, as Non-Independent Director	For (Exceptional)	The election of non-independent directors uses the non-nomination system whereby any shareholder can nominate any person of legal age to the board. Companies are not obliged to provide a roster of candidates and their profiles before the meeting, and many firms disclose candidate names and profiles at the meeting or only a few days beforehand. Election by non-nomination system poses a great challenge to investors, particularly overseas investors voting by proxy who must cast their votes well in advance of the meeting. The non-nomination system disenfranchises minority shareholders and greatly limits their ability to cast an informed vote. However, the company is making a material commitment to the adoption of the nomination system by amending its Articles of Association. As of the date of the analysis, the candidates listed in items 6.1 C 6.6 have been proposed by shareholders. It is acknowledged the possibility that other candidates could be nominated at the meeting. But in this case the company has disclosed sufficient information regarding the known candidates to allow for a meaningful shareholder vote. Given that the qualifications of the known candidates do not raise any concerns against the intended roles, a vote FOR this candidate is also warranted.

There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would not be supportive of the company's remuneration policy for two reasons: (1) none of any annual bonus award is deferred (2) there is no reference to malus or clawback in any of the variable pay arrangements. These arrangements are not aligned with the long term interests of shareholders. However, we are relatively comfortable with the first issue as both directors have material stakes in the business, ensuring their interests are firmly aligned with shareholders (particularly the CEO, founder of the company who has a 35.6% stake in the business). We are less supportive of the absences of clawback provisions (albeit we acknowledge that overall pay levels continue to be quite prudent) and will be putting the company on notice to say that we will not be supporting the remuneration report next year if this issue hasn't been addressed.

Hansteen Holdings PLC AGM 09/06/2014 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For (Exceptional)	As disclosed in the annual report, the Board is keen to ensure that Hansteen benefits from the highest quality Board comprising individuals with an appropriate balance of skills and experience. Currently, there are no female Directors on the Board. Basically, the company has not disclosed a policy. Where this is the case, and it has been for a number of years, our policy is to vote against the Annual Accounts. In addition the composition of the board committees do not meet the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Code. On engagement, the company said that they have these issues in hand and we are therefore supporting the resolution.
	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	None of any annual bonus award is deferred which is not aligned with the long term interests of shareholders. However, there is an LTIP in

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

			place. - There isn't a maximum award for long term incentive awards (Founder LTIP). However no awards have been made under the Plan since flotation in 2005. Shareholding requirements is relatively low. However, the executive directors hold significant shares in the company. The joint CEOs' service contracts provide termination payments that include payment of the prior year's annual bonus. The good thing is the contract of Richard Lowes (appointed in 2010) and future new Executive Directors will not include bonus payments at termination. The company does not have the internal dilution limit of 5% in 10 years for discretionary schemes. On the basis that on balance the arrangements are acceptable, we are supporting the arrangements. On engagement we have persuaded the company to disclose more on the discretionary targets under the bonus (which amounts to 20% of the award), encourage them to defer part of their bonus awards and, as they grow, think about the internal 5% in 10 years limit (current dilution is 0.78% of company's issued share capital). However, arrangements are not egregious and other aspects of pay arrangements are acceptable.
	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	The Founder LTIP allows for unlimited awards to be made. However, no new awards have been made since flotation. There is a lack of adequate disclosure of performance targets on bonus awards (in relation to the discretionary element) met for bonus awards made for the year. Last year's remuneration vote received more than 20% against votes. On balance, other than a lack of deferral on the bonus plan, the other arrangements look acceptable and are not excessive. On this basis, we are supporting the Remuneration Report.

	Resolution 7. Re-elect James Hambro as Director	For (Exceptional)	This Director is a non independent chairman and the company has not provided sufficient explanation for not having an independent chairman. In addition, this director sits on the remuneration committee. We consider this inappropriate as the committee should consist entirely of independent directors. We have accepted his chairmanship until now. He has been chair for 17 years (previously Chairman of Ashtenne Holdings together with Morgan Jones, Ian Watson, Co CEOs of Ashtenne).

	Resolution 6. Require a Majority Vote for the Election of Directors	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as it would give shareholders a more meaningful voice in the election of directors and further enhance the company's corporate governance.
	Resolution 7. Submit Shareholder Rights Plan (Poison Pill) to Shareholder Vote	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted because shareholders should have the right to vote on poison pills.
	Resolution 8. Provide For Confidential Running Vote Tallies	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted, as approval would encourage the company to establish a level playing field within the proxy voting process.
	Resolution 9. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 5. Disclosure of Recoupment Activity from Senior Officers	For (Exceptional)	A vote for the proposal is warranted, as its adoption would provide shareholders with confirmation of whether the company's clawback policy has been used to hold senior executives accountable for significant financial or reputational harm caused by misconduct, or failure to properly monitor or oversee risks leading to misconduct, without putting the company at a competitive disadvantage or causing undue burden.
	Resolution 6. Report on Lobbying Payments and Policy	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted, as additional information regarding Walmart's lobbying and trade association policies, oversight mechanisms, and participation would aid shareholders in assessing the company's management of its comprehensive lobbying activities.

Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	For 2014, Messrs McCollum and Davies have been awarded 2% increases, whilst Mr Portman and Whittern have been awarded 8% and 13% increases, respectively. The report states that the salary increase for Mr Whittern is to reflect his below market salary positioning and his performance in the role of finance director. It follows a increase of a similar magnitude last year. The increase to Mr Portman reflects the size and scope of his role after comparison with market data. Base salaries appear to be at the low end compared to FTSE250 General Retailers. There is a low shareholding requirements for Executive directors but the majority of them hold significant shares in the company. There is no deferral for either the bonus or LTIP schemes. This should be considered by the company. As other arrangements appear acceptable we are supporting for now and review when the policy is next up for a vote
	Resolution 4. Re-elect Peter Hindley as Director	For (Exceptional)	This Director is a former CEO of the company who is therefore not an independent chairman of the board. At the end of 2008, Peter Hindley relinquished the role as the Company's CEO and became the Chairman of the Board, which is contrary to the provisions of the Code as he was therefore not independent on appointment. It is noted that he chairs the Nomination Committee but does not sit on any of the other key Board Committees reserved for independent Directors. We do not

In 2009 we supported his move into the chairmanship on the condition it was no longer than 5 years when Mr Hindley was due to retire and on condition the board was strengthened. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Nabors Industries is exposed to environmental risks associated with water pollution, energy use and water use. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but none is available in the public domain. The company has not responded to the Carbon Disclosure Project.

	Resolution 5. Require Shareholder Approval of Specific Performance Metrics in Equity Compensation Plans	For (Exceptional)	A vote for is warranted. Notwithstanding some improvements to the compensation program in light of a third year of low support for the say-on-pay proposal in 2013, the company continues to provide limited disclosure about incentive goals, which does not give shareholders sufficient information to assess the rigor of performance required in relation to the awards generated or the level of discretion applied to determine them.
	Resolution 6. Adopt Retention Ratio for Executives	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as the more rigorous guidelines recommended by the proponent may better address concerns with respect to creating a strong link between the interests of top executives and long-term shareholder value.
	Resolution 7. Report on Sustainability	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted, as shareholders would benefit from the information disclosed in a comprehensive sustainability report. Such information would allow shareholders to better evaluate the company's sustainability performance and its management of related risks and opportunities.
	Resolution 8. Require a Majority Vote for the Election of Directors	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as it would give shareholders a more meaningful voice in the election of directors and enhance the company's corporate governance.

	Resolution 10. Amend Vote-Counting Methodology to Treat Broker Non-Votes as Having No Impact	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted given that excluding uninstructed broker votes from the denominator for vote counting purposes would be consistent with standard market practice and would increase the expectation that the board will take action in response to a shareholder proposal supported by a majority of shares actively voted.

	Resolution 5. Reduce Supermajority Vote Requirement	For (Exceptional)	James McRitchie, a shareholder in the company, has submitted this precatory proposal calling for the repeal of the company's supermajority vote provisions. The resolution reads: "RESOLVED: Shareholders request that our board take the steps necessary so that each voting requirement in our charter and bylaws that calls for a greater than simple majority vote be eliminated, and replaced by a requirement for a majority of the votes cast for and against applicable proposals, or a simple majority in compliance with applicable laws. If necessary this means the closest standard to a majority of the votes cast for and against such proposals consistent with applicable laws." We agree that that a simple majority of voting shares should be sufficient to effect changes in a company's corporate governance. Requiring more than a simple majority may permit management to entrench itself by blocking amendments that are in shareholders' best interests. In this case, approval of this proposal will enable shareholders to have a meaningful voice in various board and corporate transactions that impact their rights. The elimination of the supermajority threshold is a step in the positive direction for the company and represents an enhancement in the company's corporate governance structure

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 6. 	Resolution 7A. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

	Resolution 7C. Amend Policy to Disclose Payments to Tax-Exempt Organizations	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted for the following reasons: the company does not disclose the portion of payments made to tax-exempt organizations that are used for non-deductible political purposes; and the company is currently involved in a controversy regarding payments made to tax-exempt organizations.

While diversifying the company's business may change its risk profile and industry exposure, such diversification may provide new avenues for growth. Since shareholder ratification is required for significant acquisitions and large share issuances, shareholders can provide a reasonable check on strategic drift. 	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Shangri-La Asia Limited AGM 29/05/2014 BERMUDA	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the approval of the Report and Accounts because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. Shangri-La Asia is exposed to the risk of bribery in its operations. We note the disclosures made on this issue in the 2012 Sustainability Report and the 2013 UNGC Communication on Progress (COP) but we strongly encourage the company to publish the full text of its Code of Conduct, as well as details of its management approach and performance in this area. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, we would like to give the company more time to improve its disclosure. This is because we acknowledge the company's statement in its COP that it recognises the need to strengthen corporate governance in areas including ethics and anti-corruption. We look forward to improved reporting next year.

We also take some comfort that a majority of the Board is independent. We also note that his proposed term of office for this director is four years. We do not support proposed terms of office exceeding 3 years as we feel longer terms in office reduces director accountability to shareholders. However, we are mindful that the proposed term is just one year over our preferred term. take a responsible approach to engaging in key policy developments on issues such as climate change.

	Resolution 6. Report on Management of Hydraulic Fracturing Risks and Opportunities	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted, as disclosure of additional information, including quantitative performance metrics and goals regarding hydraulic fracturing management, would allow shareholders to better assess how the company is managing potential risks and liabilities. We would expect Chevron to follow best practice guidelines.
	Resolution 7. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 8. Amend Bylaws -- Call Special Meetings	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted. Lowering the demand threshold and removing the agenda item restrictions would enhance the current shareholder right to call special meetings.
	Resolution 9. Require Director Nominee with Environmental Experience	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted, as Chevron does not appear to have an independent board member with relevant environmental expertise, the company is involved in environmental controversies, and the nature of its operations are subject to environmental risks. . It is important that there are appropriate skills and experience on the Board to ensure appropriate oversight of the management of sustainability risks.
	Resolution 10. Adopt Guidelines for Country Selection	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted as: Chevron does not disclose policies governing its decision-making process to invest or operate in politically or socially unstable markets; and The company has business ties to countries with histories of political instability and human rights

When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

As he is one of three non-executives who has been on the Board for 11 years we would normally vote against his re-election. However, his time on the Board is not materially long enough to warrant a concern and we also welcome the fact that there has been some board refreshment since the last AGM. Approve the Related Party Transaction	For (Exceptional)	Shareholders are asked to approve the arrangement to be entered into between the Company and WTC, as trustees of a member of the Concert Party, in connection with the Tender Offer and Repurchase (the "Undertaking"). The Undertaking is classified as a related party transaction under the Listing Rules. The members of the extended Rayne family and associated trusts (the "Concert Party") together hold 35.77% of the issued share capital and are treated by the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers (the "Panel") as 'acting in concert' for the purposes of the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the "Takeover Code"). Under the provisions of the Takeover Code, if the Concert Party's aggregate percentage holding of ordinary shares increases as a result of the Tender Offer (and the associated Repurchase), it will be obliged to make an offer for all the ordinary shares in the Company which it does not own. Under normal circumstances we would have considered voting against due to concerns over creeping control of the Concert Party by virtue of these Tender offers. However, the trustees of a member of the Concert Party, WTC, in their capacity as trustees of The Lord Rayne Will Trust, have irrevocably undertaken to the Company that WTC will tender its Basic Entitlement and, in addition, apply to tender additional ordinary shares such that the aggregate percentage holding of the Concert Party does not exceed 35.77 % after completion of the Tender Offer and Repurchase.

			CEO/Chairman, a role we prefer to be split. The Chairman's role on a board is to evaluate and review the performance of management, and to ensure there are sufficient checks and balances; this role is obviously compromised when the Chairman is also the CEO. This concern is exacerbated given the lack of independent directors on the Board. However, we are very mindful that Orange is evolving in a very uncertain sector environment (price wars, free cash flow deterioration, etc, but possible consolidation coming to the rescue) and Orange is in the midst of a turnaround (cost cutting plan, reshuffling of assets, accelerated shift to digital, big investment plan to accelerate its technological lead, etc). Stephane Richard has done a good job in this shaky environment, and as such we stabilisation of management in the company is therefore crucial. The work has just begun and it is a long run task. If this vote on his re-election goes close to wire because of concerns over the combined role, our worst fear is that a new CEO would be proposed, it would be a heavily political nomination and the room of maneuver to turn around the company would be tighter. Note that if there was a separate vote on the combination of CEO & Chair roles, we would have voted against as we agree that even if this case a different Chairman would be a much better situation for this company (as for any quoted company). We note that the company has recently released a statement that it will appoint a lead independent director which is better but not better than having an independent chair.

	Institutional Shareholders		shareholders can vote in favour of one of the proposed slates only. As this list (which is proposed by institutional investors) is composed solely of independent candidates with strong and varied international experience (and which is better positioned to represent the long-term interests of minority shareholders and carry out an independent oversight of the management's action), we are supporting this slate. We note that with only two slates presented, this is a non-contentious election because candidates are not competing for the same seats on the board. The majority slate will take six seats and the minority slate will take the remaining three seats.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Evolva Holding SA AGM 23/05/2014 SWITZERLAND	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For
	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report (Non-Binding Vote)	For (Exceptional)	Performance targets are not applied for option awards. In addition, options start vesting before three years (i.e 20% of options vest at grant and 20% vest at each of the four following grant anniversaries) so the proposed awards fail to act as a long term incentive tool. Furthermore, there is automatic vesting in case of a change of control and the combined option programmes slightly exceed 10% of shares outstanding. However, we have recently invested into this business and upon engagement with the Company we took comfort that these issues are something the compensation committee is looking into to see if changes can be made. It is thinking of making vesting no more than 3 years. Not all peers have performance conditions (probably half do) but this is something they will also consider. Executive awards are effectively based on pre-grant performance but all employees gets options as is part of the need to preserve cash as it is not yet a profit making company (and incentivise at the same time). Regarding the automatic vesting of options on a change of control, we have encouraged the Company to phase out this practice. We also take comfort from the modesty of option awards (value of 75% of salary for CEO, 60% for other executive) and over pay arrangements in general eg. CEO's salary in 2013 was CHF 500,000 CHF (400,000 CHF in fixed, 100,000CHF in variable). The csh bonus is 20% of salary and the Company has not paid more than 6-7%. These are very modest sums – peers get 3 times this (although the company accepts that some of these are profitable companies). However, we have advised the Company that if there have been no improvements to LTI arrangements next year, we will have to vote against as in their current form they are not proper aligned with shareholder interests.

	Resolution 5.1. Approve Creation of CHF 10 Million Pool of Capital without Preemptive Rights	For (Exceptional)	The authority would enable the Board to issue the equivalent of 18.06% of the share capital without respecting pre-emption rights. To ensure reasonable protection of shareholders, given the dilutive effect of such authorities, we have a strong preference for general authorities, which do not apply pre-emption or priority rights, to be limited to no more than 10%, unless a clear justification and strategic rationale is provided to shareholders. However we have recently invested into this business and upon engagement with the Company, we are fine with this. The company has comfortable amount of funding but board would like to have flexibility being a small biotech company as it may need to raise cash quickly. Importantly, should the Company need to raise cash non-pre-emptively, we will be offered the opportunity to participate. The company's Articles state that it will award pre-emption rights (eg in 2013 they did a rights issues) but it gives them the option to exclude i.e accelerated book build. Even then, when the Company did the book build, existing shareholders were still offered to participate. Another mitigating factor is that the Articles do not allow deep discount shares issues. Any issues will be at the market price or at a slight discount only.
	Resolution 5.2. Amend Articles Re: Ordinance Against Excessive Remuneration at Listed Companies	For (Exceptional)	The proposed amendments will continue to allow for pension payments to non-executive directors. Further, the proposal would allow for the issuance of stock options to non-executive members of the board of directors. However, upon engagement with the company we have been advised that it does not pay pension premiums for non-executives. It only pays social security contributions which are legally compulsory in Switzerland. The company admits that its Articles still give it the option to pay pension contributions but the Company as confirmed that this will be deleted from articles and there is absolutely no intention of doing this. Regarding, option grants to non-executives we are comfortable with this because the company is a small-cap biotech where options are partly used to preserve cash although we would expect this to change when the company is in a better financial position.

Approve Remuneration of Directors in the Amount of CHF 670,000	For (Exceptional)	During the year, non-executive directors have received performance-related awards which is a fundamental breach of best practice. We are comfortable with this however, because the company is a small-cap biotech where options are partly used to preserve cash, although we would expect this to change when the company is in a better financial position. Also the amounts are relatively small (face value of 40,000CHF) and not performance related so should not compromise the independence of non-executives.

However, we note that Deloitte have only served for 2 years more than we would like and the Company has provided a good explanation regarding its considerations on auditor independence. The Group specifies that the audit partner is required to rotate after a maximum of five years and the Audit Committee discusses engagement partner rotation on a regular basis and a succession plan is in place for Edward Hanson who is to be replaced in 2014 at his normal rotation date after five years in the role. The Audit Committee will give further consideration during the incoming engagement partner's term to the application of the audit tendering provision of the 2012 edition of the Code. In line with recommended best practice, it is the intention that the Group audit will be put out for tender at some point in the future. We hope that these become definite plans and will look such a commitment in next year's accounts.

	Resolution 19. Elect Michael Fertik, a Shareholder Nominee to the Board	For (Exceptional)	This is one of four shareholder resolutions being proposed by SpringOwl Associates, a Hedge fund which owns c. 5% of the issued share capital of bwin.party. The dissident argues that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Since the merger of bwin and PartyGaming was announced in July 2010, the Company's stock has underperformed pure online players (Betsson, Playtech, Unibet and 888) by 215 percentage points, and multichannel players (Ladbrokes, Paddy Power and William Hill) by 130 percentage points. The share price has declined at a CAGR of (22.1)%. 2. The Company achieved a negative EBITDA CAGR of (17.6)% between 2010 and 2013, vs. at least 15.0% growth of each online gaming peer (888, Playtech, William Hill Online, Bettson, Unibet and Paddy Power Online). 3. Overall costs are increasing, despite management's claims of achieving synergies. Management claims synergies have been exceeded; however, costs increased 3.1% between 2010 and 2012. The 2013 cost reductions were driven by a marketing reduction of EUR 52 million, not by increased efficiencies. 4. The merger between bwin and PartyGaming has been a failure. Increased scale has not led to better financial performance, with each product KPI having deteriorated and market leadership having eroded. The dissident also argues that despite declining performance and stock price management have received a significant amount of shares and bonuses, and salary increases

		If elected, the dissident nominees will propose to effect a platform including reversing the Volume to Value" strategy, rationalising costs, divesting non-core assets and optimising the capital structure and instituting share buybacks. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whilst we share similar concerns, we are mindful of the following problems with the proposals: • Lack of time and information to assess suitability of new Directors; • The disproportionate representation of SpringOwl as a minority shareholder with 5.25% voting share capital, obtained through these directors. Should the four nominees be appointed to the Board, at 14 members the Board will be too large and this would result in a more unwieldy decision-making forum as well as add extra cost to the Company; • SpringOwl already has a nomination right under the relationship agreement with the Company, which they have not exercised so far. There also is the question whether the large shareholder should be proposing the removal of directors, particularly executive management. We will certainly be keeping their performance under close review. Our conclusion is that there needs to be some board change. Regardless of the proposed nominees, we were already voting against (or withholding support) on a number of the non-independent directors as there needs to be some fresh and independent viewpoints and more experienced directors. Taking into account the dissident's continued right to nominate one director we are supporting this director. Of the four proposed nominees, we favour Steven Rittvo who is CEO/Chairman and founder of gaming consulting firm The Innovation Group of Companies; frequent expert witness on gaming-related issues and has testified before numerous

			legislative and licensing bodies on both state and national levels. However, we also note that he was prior director, for just six months in 2010, at Gametech International, which filed for bankruptcy in July 2012. More of a downfall is the fact that as an industry consultant, a directorship on any one competitor could cause frictions with clients, potentially creating conflicts which would be difficult to manage in Board deliberations given bwin.party's strong ambitions in the US. The nominee we are therefore supporting is Michael Fertik who is CEO, Chairman, and Founder of Reputation.com, inventor on multiple patents in the fields of technology and data science and author of the bestselling book Wild West 2.0. Reputation.com is a 200-employee company founded in 2006, backed by venture capital funds. He has the potential to provide some fresh ideas to the Board The other two nominees don't appear to have the suitable experience required.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Without doubt, there should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 6. Declassify the Board of Directors	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted because the declassification would enhance board accountability.
	Resolution 7. Pro-rata Vesting of Equity Awards	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted. Although the company has adopted a "double-trigger" vesting approach, the request for pro rata vesting of equity awards up to the time of an executive's termination will further align the interests of executives with shareholders.

Antofagasta plc AGM 21/05/2014 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For (Exceptional)	This time last year there were no women on the Board and so we wrote to the Company with other shareholders to express our disappointment given this was the only FTSE 100 company yet to address the important issue of gender diversity. This is no longer the case following the appointment of Vivianne Blanlot, in March 2014 (she/women represent 9% of the Board). Also, we note that In the annual report, the Nomination Committee states that the Board includes individuals with a diverse range of technical skills, backgrounds, expertise, nationalities and perspectives. Appointments continue to be made entirely on merit, whether at Board, executive or operational level. Women are represented at every level of management and the Group continues to employ the highest percentage of female employees at its operations of any major mining company in Chile. This is helpful, but we will continue to encourage the Company to appoint further women (i.e a critical mass) and need to understand more about any challenges the Company has in finding suitable female board directors. We note that that there are three long serving directors so would expect these to be replaced in due course and for suitable women in the shortlist for new directors.

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	There is no reference to malus or clawback in any of the variable pay arrangements. However, we have engaged with the company on this matter and it has provided further information on the provisions within their incentive arrangements which provide for deferral and forfeiture of equity in the event that, subsequent to meeting initial performance hurdles, the Company does not fulfill a future target. The provisions in this regard are set out in our Executive Incentive Plan. In summary, the EIP is split into Element A and Element B. The latter defers for a two year period, the vesting of 50% of the award made in a particular year. Payment of that deferred element is subject to a combination of continued employment and risk of forfeiture in each of the years of deferral. 50% of Element B is subject to risk of forfeiture in the event financial targets set by the Remuneration Committee are not satisfied. There is a table within the report on page 73 which sets out the thresholds for forfeiture which for the existing deferred elements are based on revenue. Whilst there is no clawback or malus on shares once they are vested, the Company thinks that its arrangements under the EIP go beyond the standard market practice FTSE 250 malus provision. However, there are no specific provisions within the Company plans for clawback if there is executive misbehaviour, material error of the firm, or it suffers a material failure of risk management. But the Company has confirmed that where a payment has yet to be made, and a participant was guilty of gross misconduct the Company would expect to withhold such outstanding payments. In summary, whilst the Company's malus and clawback provisions are not as robust as we would like, it does have a strong element of deferred awards conditional upon future performance and we are giving the company some additional time to add the more generally expected provisions.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	Although uncapped bonuses are common in the asset manager sector, our opposition last year reflected both the need for better disclosure (i.e. how awards made during the year reflect individual Director performance and how award levels/performance compares to the previous year) and the continued significance of the annual bonuses. Last year's remuneration Report resolution received over 40% dissent

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

			However, this year we are supporting as whilst bonuses were again significant (total bonuses received during the year under review by Messrs Bonham Carter, Chatfeild-Roberts, Johnson, and Slendebroek amount to £1,500,000, £1,700,000, £700,000, and £1,250,000, respectively), the disclosure of performance conditions for the annual bonus and the explanation of bonus outcomes have materially improved over last year. Although precise targets are not disclosed, commentary is provided on both the Company and individual performance factors which led to the payouts for 2013. This is also linked to the performance of the business as a whole, which did well during the year. We are also mindful that an appropriate level of bonus deferral is in place and has been simplified such that the for bonus amounts in excess of £100,000, no less than 40% of the bonus amount in excess of the £100,000 is deferred in the form of shares or options over shares and such awards normally vest at least three years after the date of grant. The deferred shares are also subject to malus provisions. Other positives are the continuing low salaries (max £250k), so the majority of the pay package is performance related), and the modest grants under the LTIP.
	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	Whilst there aren't individual caps for annual bonus awards (rather, the total bonus pool is calculated by reference to profits and has been maintained at or below 25.5% of pre-incentive operating profit) and this is something we would encourage, the absence of such caps is not uncommon in the asset manager sector and there are strong mitigating factors for us to be comfortable, such as the significant amount of deferral of bonuses with malus provisions, the much improved level of performance targets and the modest salaries and Company pension contributions.

	Resolution 14. Reappoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	PwC were appointed in 2001, 13 years ago. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. Although no tender has been conducted for this work since 2001, the last rotation of the partner responsible for the audit took place in 2010. Furthermore, we welcome that the Committee currently anticipates that it will conduct a tender for the external audit in 2014.

However, we take comfort from the following statement in the latest Annual Report: "There are four directors on the board and as each has served no more than five years there are no current plans to recruit new directors. In the last recruitment exercise, as described in the previous annual report, the board sought to identify a wide spectrum of candidates and to take gender into account. The board's aim is to continue with a policy of shortlisting women in the search for new directors." When the opportunity to appoint new directors to the board arises, we will be keeping a close eye on the situation.

When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. 	Chen		(SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Stericycle is exposed to risks relating to health & safety, bribery, climate change and the environment. The environmental risks are associated with air emissions and biodiversity. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but there is little in the public domain. The company has not responded to the Carbon Disclosure Project. With respect to bribery, the company publishes its Code of Business Conduct but we would like to see information relating to the company's management approach and performance in this area. We also strongly encourage the company to publish quantitative data on its health & safety performance. Although we acknowledge that the company published its first 'U.S. Sustainability Statement' in 2013, we are looking for consolidated performance data on a range of sustainability issues before we can offer a vote in support.

Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, the annual report states that given the significant level of other changes over the last several years, which includes the mix of countries in which much of the audit work is conducted, the rapid growth and evolving structure of the Group, a change in Chief Financial Officer, ongoing efforts to continue to improve audit effectiveness with the existing external auditors, and other factors, the Audit Committee does not believe at this time that it is appropriate or in the interest of shareholders to rotate external auditors primarily for the sake of change. We accept this explanation for the time being but this is an issue we will be keeping under review and will carry less weight in subsequent years.

We are relative comfortable with this explanation and completely agree that appointments should be made on merit but would like to know more about the nomination process i.e are women being put forward by headhunters and are they being shortlisted. We will expect to see more disclosure on future appointments, particularly if the next appointment is male.

Mitigating, performance against the bonus measures has improved compared to 2012 and there is no pay for-performance disconnect. 	Resolution 5. Reappoint Ernst & Young LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	Ernst & Young has been UBM's external auditor since 2002. The company has retained the same audit firm in excess of ten years. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, Ernst & Young was reappointed following a tender process in 2009 and an annual review of Ernst & Young's independence and audit process effectiveness is performed each year before a recommendation is made to the Board to propose Ernst & Young for re-election at the AGM. The Audit Committee has concluded that, having tendered the audit in 2009 and with mandatory audit partner rotation taking place in 2012, an audit tender is not required during 2014. We are comfortable with this explanation for now but will be keeping this under review.

Re-elect Jonathan Newcomb as Director	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstance we would vote against this non-executive director as he is technically not independent having served on the Board for 12 years tenure and sits on the audit committee, which should consist entirely of independent directors. However, the Board states that he has considerable experience and detailed knowledge of the sectors in which the Company operates, and continues to contribute objective analysis and challenge to Board discussions, and it considers him to remain independent. We agree that his time on the Board is not considered long independent to materially impact his independence. We also note that there has been steady board refreshment over the last few years and take comfort from the fact all of the other non-executives are independent. However, we will be engaging with the Company to ask why Jonathan Newcomb remains on the Audit committee as we would question the appropriateness of this given there are 4 other members.

We note that the Code of Business Conduct refers to human rights but this alone is not sufficient. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, we note that the company published its first stand-alone Sustainability Report for the group in March 2014. However, as per the provisions of draft legislation currently before the European Commission, it is the intention of the Company to carry out a full review at the conclusion of the 2015 audit, subject to the outcome of the UK Competition Commission and EU mandatory rotation legislation. Cameron International Corporation AGM 16/05/2014 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1.1. Elect Director H. Paulett Eberhart	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Cameron International is exposed to environmental risks associated with water pollution, energy use and water use. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data. We note that the company published its first Sustainability Report in 2013, and that it is working to track environmental data and aims to publish metrics in future reports. We strongly encourage the company to publish this data in its next Sustainability Report. We also urge the company to respond

We believe that mandatory auditor rotation (or at least Tender every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, the Audit Committee said that it has considered the subsequent proposals of both the UK Competition Commission and the European Commission regarding external audit tendering and will continue to monitor developments in this area. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, in the 2013 Annual Report, the company states that it will make a full disclosure of its GHG data in the 2014 Annual Report. In light of this commitment, we will continue to offer a vote of support. On Board diversity, we note that the Board recognises the benefits of having diversity across all areas of the Group and believes that this adds to Kentz 'ss continued success and advantage. The Nomination Committee has sought to address the recommendations made by Lord Davies and following a comprehensive recruitment process, the Company appointed Meg Lassarat to the Group who will succeed Ed Power upon his retirement as CFO. The Board does not think it is appropriate or realistic to commit to achieving a given percentage of women on the Board by a certain date. Such a commitment would have implications for the continuing tenure and contribution of the existing Directors and could be prejudicial to the business.

Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. Accordingly, a vote for this proposal is warranted.

However, we acknowledge that stating a maximum price is French Law and we also engaged with the company on this issue in March 2014. The Company confirmed that the average price it bought back at in 2013 was approx 40 EUR (so not at a premium) so in practice this is not an issue but it noted our suggestion for it to provide an assurance that it will note make buybacks at more than a 10% premium to market price. We will review again next year. Also we note that the authority is valid for 18 months only, so we have a chance to review how it has been used in practice and have a vote on the authority effectively on an annual basis.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	While the remuneration structure for 2013 remained broadly unchanged, for 2014, the Committee approved a number of changes. The CEO's salary was increased by 6.8% and his maximum bonus opportunity was increased from 100% to 125% of salary. The on-target bonus potential was reduced from 80% to 60% of maximum. The level of pension contributions was increased from 12% to 15% of salary and shareholding requirement of 100% of salary was introduced. In addition, the Company seeks shareholder approval for an increase in the annual LTIP award from 100% of salary to 150% for the Chief Executive and to 125% for the Finance Director. The Committee believes that these changes are required to reflect the change in size and scope of the business, to ensure continuing alignment with the post-2014 corporate strategy which is being developed, and to incentivise Directors to continue to produce an exceptional performance. When reviewing the remuneration arrangements the Committee also took into account the fact that shareholder value has increased by 264% since the start of 2011 to 31 December 2013. On looking at competitor pay, the pay rises look reasonable.

Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. Deloitte LLP has served as the Company's auditor since 2002, 14 years ago. In the annual report, the Audit Committee has stated that it is monitoring guidance regarding mandatory tendering of the external audit appointment applicable to FTSE 350 companies and EU proposals regarding mandatory firm rotation which will apply to public interest entities. The Committee will continue to consider the implications for the appointment of the external auditors going forward. As this company is smallcap and the retendering guidance is not applicable to them, we are not raising this as an issue this year.

			but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Apache is exposed to risks associated with human rights and bribery in its operations. With respect to human rights, we are pleased to note that the company has adopted a set of Human Rights Principles and has published a statement on the monitoring of these Principles. We strongly encourage the company, however, to include reference to the core ILO labour standards areas in the Principles. In relation to bribery, we note that the company publishes its Code of Business Conduct and provides accompanying information in its 2013 Sustainability Report. We would also like to see details of the company's performance in this area, such as data on employee training on the Code. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, in recognition of the company's progress in its human rights disclosure, we will offer a vote of support this year.

However, this is not a material issues as bonuses levels are relatively low and management have shares over 1x salary. Also, last year the company introduced clawback arrangements to bonuses so that within 3 years, if e.g. there is a misstatement of profits, the bonuses can be clawed back.

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

			A more material issue is the size of LTIP awards payment for median performance under the LTIP. Although median payout of 20% is low by comparison to many companies, the multiple of 300% of salary means that up to 60% of salary could be paid out for median performance. On the flip side, full vesting occurs for upper decile TSR performance, not upper quartile which is quite unusual. Also, 50% of LTIP awards are deferred for one year and awards are subject to 3 year clawback arrangements too. However, given executive directors will again receive maximum awards under the LTIP in 2014, we will definitely be asking the company to address these issues and will consider taking voting action next year if they haven't been improved.

However, in last year's annual report, the Company stated that Todd Hunt would retire from the Board within the next 12 months but in light of the retirement of Chairman, Sir Bill Gammell's and that of James Buckee at the AGM and also other management changes we note that Todd Hunt has agreed to offer himself for re-election as a non-executive director to allow the Board to retain his valuable technical skills and extensive knowledge of the business. The Board intends to appoint a new NED with relevant technical skills and experience during 2014. We are comfortable with this justification and commitment to replace him, and also as the length of Todd Hunt's tenure is not considered material to warrant concern.

Fresenius Medical Care AG & Co. KGaA AGM 15/05/2014 GERMANY	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the approval of the Report and Accounts because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. Fresenius Medical Care is exposed to environmental risks associated with its use of energy, water and air emissions and waste. We acknowledge that the environmental performance data in the 2013 Annual Report is an improvement on the reporting of the previous year but we urge the company to publish clear and quantitative environmental performance data. As in previous years, the company submitted a non-public response to the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) 2013. We encourage the company to publish its CDP response in future. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, in acknowledgement of the improvement in environmental reporting, we will offer more time to the company before deteriorating our vote.

	Resolution 1.6. Elect Director Jerry W. Levin	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Lorillard is exposed to risks associated with supply chain labour standards and the environment. The environmental risks are related to energy use, water use and pollution. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but none is available in the public domain. The company did not respond to the Carbon Disclosure Project 2013. With respect to supply chain labour standards, the company's disclosure has not improved since last year; there is no evidence of a formal labour standards policy, nor details of the company's approach towards, and performance on, this area. We are deteriorating our vote this year to reflect our disappointment at the continued lack of environmental reporting and the lack of improvement in the company's supply chain labour standards disclosure.

KPMG Audit plc has been the Company's auditors since the Company was originally listed in 1999, 15 years ago. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. The audit was last tendered in 1999. During 2013, the Company discussed the recommendations of the Financial Reporting Council for the external audit to be tendered. Following these discussions, it has determined that it will be appropriate to conduct a tender of the Group's audit engagement during 2014. The tender will be in respect of appointment to the role of Group auditor for the year ending 31 December 2016. Financial Reporting Council (FRC) guidance recommends that audit committees specify the types of non-audit work (i) for which the use of the external auditor is pre-approved as a matter of policy, (ii) for which specific committee approval is required, and (iii) from which the external auditor is excluded. The Company is encouraged to provide more disclosure to shareholders regarding the types of non-audit work which may or may not be undertaken by the external auditor in accordance with the FRC guidance. As the non audit fees are within our threshold limits and there will be a retendering this year we are supporting the resolution.

However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. 	Resolution 13. Reappoint Deloitte LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm in excess of ten years. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. Deloitte LLP has served as the Company's auditors since 1999, 15 years ago. The Company does not state when the last audit was tendered. The Audit Committee has noted the changes to the Code, the recent findings of the Competition Commission, the Guidance for Audit Committees issued by the FRC and the EU draft regulation in respect of audit tendering and rotation. The Audit Committee further states that the Group is not a FTSE350 company but reviews the performance of the auditors each year including discussion as to whether an audit tender is required. As it is not a FTSE350 company and the Guidance and EU regulations are new, we are not raising this as an issue this year.

	Resolution 5. Reappoint Grant Thornton UK LLP as Auditors and Authorise Their Remuneration	For (Exceptional)	The non-audit consulting fees for the year were significant at GBP 107,000 and being more than 100% of the audit fees of GBP 109,000. The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services. This arrangement has the potential to open the auditor process to a wide range of conflicts of interest. However, overall fees are relatively low so we are supporting the auditors reappointment.

Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	We note the changes made to the remuneration structure for 2014, including the increase in the maximum bonus opportunity from 80% to 100% of salary and a corresponding decrease in the maximum LTIP award levels. However, they have introduced malus provisions and a two-year holding period under the LTIP. The Committee has also introduced a deferral element under the Annual Bonus Plan and revised the comparator group under the TSR element of the LTIP, so on balance we are supportive. We need to keep an eye on base pay which is above median and they have low shareholding guidelines which could be strengthened.

Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. The Report states that Ernst & Young LLP has been involved with auditing the Group's affairs for over 50 years and there are no contractual restrictions on the Group with regards to their appointment. Based on the Committee's review and assessment, the members of the Audit Committee are fully satisfied with the performance of Ernst & Young LLP, their independence and objectivity. Based on this assessment and recognising that a new Audit partner has been appointed for the financial year 2013 as part of the five-year rotation plan, the Committee will not be undertaking a tender exercise for the provision of audit services relating to the 2014 financial reporting year, and a resolution will be put to shareholders at the AGM in May 2014, to reappoint Ernst & Young LLP as Auditors for a further year. The Audit Committee are cognisant of current regulatory developments and envisage that a tender exercise for the provision of audit services relating to financial reporting year commencing 2015, will be undertaken. As The company has said it will tender next year and no auditing fees are acceptable, we are supportive of the auditors re-appointment.

However, consideration of the circumstances that led to his appointment as acting CEO for a 92 day period can be seen to be exceptional in this case. It is also noted that he did not receive any long-term incentive awards and pension contributions during the period when he was CEO, save for a discretionary bonus which was tied to the achievement of strategic objectives which is linked to his role as CEO.

	Resolution 8. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

	Resolution 2. Appoint KPMG LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	KPMG has served as the Company's auditors since 1987, 27 years ago. .Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least Tender) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, we note that the current audit partner will retire by rotation at the end of 2014. The Company is mindful of the recommendations of the Code in relation to rotation and audit tender, and of the Competition Commission Order relating to the statutory audit market. Accordingly, it is anticipated that a tender process will be commenced in the next 12 months with a view to proposing an appointment which will be approved at the Company's 2015 Annual General Meeting.

	Resolution 14. Approve Management Incentive Plan	For (Exceptional)	As major shareholders in the Company, we were consulted extensively on the Management Incentive Plan. Whilst we had some initial reservations, the Company provided further reasons as to why it feels that the bonus banking plan is in the best interests of both participants and shareholders. There is a new CEO, a potential change in strategy, the company is in a cyclical industry and TSR does not mean much to participants. Whilst the plan is based on annual performance, there is a significant amount of deferral and the banked bonus is significantly clawed back if performance is not sustained over the long term. Therefore this is real alignment with shareholders (and also streamlines executive pay arrangements). The reduction in award levels (from 200% of basic salary in FY2012 and FY2013 to 150% of basic salary in FY2014) and the introduction of an EPS underpin for what was the non-performance element of the deferred bonus have helped us become Resolution 22. Broaden the Remit of the Safety and Environment Committee to Cover Corporate Responsibility and Particularly the Group's Human Capital Strategy	For (Exceptional)	This resolution has been filed by, inter alia, the International Brotherhood of Teamsters General Fund (the "Teamsters"), as well as Local Authority Pension Fund Forum ("LAPFF") members the Greater Manchester Pension Fund ("GMPF"), the Islington Council Pension Fund, and the Nottinghamshire Country Council Pension Fund. In brief, the proposal seeks the inclusion of human capital within the remit of the Board's Safety and Environmental Committee, the consequent renaming of that committee, and the adoption and monitoring of a workplace human rights policy designed to ensure compliance with the International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (the "ILO Declaration.") Statements by the proponents indicate that the proposal is prompted by allegedly inadequate human capital management at the company's US subsidiary, Durham School Services ("DSS"). The board has recommended opposition to this resolution. We recognise the progress the company has made on health and safety, however we remain concerned that the company has not put in place sufficiently robust policies or processes to manage labour relations. We are therefore supporting this resolution, although recognise that the detailed proposal may be overly prescriptive.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	Base pay was not excessive and lingered around bottom quartile against FTSE250 and FTSE250 financials (company is ranked 307). Pensions are 1/60th for each year of service which is not as generous as many companies. However, the recent pay rises, following a review of salaries, the new CEO Mr Howell, had his base sat at £450,000, 29% increase on his predecessor, Mr Stockton got an increase of 26% to £286,000 and Mr Chavasse got an increase of 11% to £285,000. These salaries are now looking on the generous side of median against the FTSE 250 financials. During the year, the company had in place transitional bonus arrangements prior to introduction of a new bonus policy. During the year Pomfret, Howell, Stockton and Chavasse received bonus payments equivalent to 118%, 68%, 98% and 113% of their respective base salaries but the justification for these payments is not clear. Under the new bonus plan the maximum bonus opportunity is going down to 125% of salary from 200%. Looking at the arrangements overall, they are not unreasonable. However, there should be better justification for pay rises and justification for bonus payments. We will engage with the company to require better disclosure but as overall, arrangements appear reasonable, we will support this year.

	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	The company is planning a revised version of the policy to a vote in 2015. For 2014, they have reduced the maximum under the bonus plan, introduced a personal performance measure and reduced the amount of bonus that is deferred into shares. However, details on the treatment of bonus payments following cessation of an executive's employment as well as vesting of outstanding share awards for good leavers have not been provided. If we get some assurance of better disclosure from engagement we can approve.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we wouldn't support policy as none of any annual bonus award is deferred (although we note that bonus potential at 120% of salary is relatively low for the size of the Company) and executive shareholding guidelines are low at 1x salary. Addressing these two issues would much more align management's interests with those of shareholders. However, as a major shareholder in the company we have been engaging with the company to encourage management to have more skin in the game and will continue these discussion. Should there be no real progress next year we will take vote

			action. We have also made the Company aware that we have some reservations about the starting salary for the new CEO (£700k). Whilst this is £75k less than his predecessor, it is still high against his peers (using a balanced comparison) which come in at around the £550k/£600k mark. If anything we would have preferred a higher bonus/ LTIP potential. The CEO should not get this much in salary until he has proved himself. The company came to this decision through benchmarking (we are mindful that the company is only 50 places outside the FTSE 100) but they also wanted to sufficiently incentivise him for the turnaround challenge. The CEO's salary will next be reviewed with effect from 1 January 2015 and we would not expect any increase unless the Company has performed exceptionally

	Resolution 5. Re-elect John McAdam as Director	For (Exceptional)	This Director is a non independent chairman (due to one-off incentive arrangement) and the company has not provided sufficient explanation for not having an independent chairman. However, we were involved in putting the new management team in place in 2008, including the chairman as part of a special turnaround situation. The one-off incentive awards were discussed and proposed after consultation to incentivise the turn around team. As such, we were comfortable with the arrangement at the time but is something we keep under review (to reflect any change of circumstances). Furthermore, we continue to be satisfied with his performance.

	Resolution 9. Re-elect Peter Long as Director	For (Exceptional)	Peter Long, Senior Independent Director is technically not independent due to tenure and sits on the remuneration committee. We consider this inappropriate as the committee should consist entirely of independent directors. However, he has been on the board for 11 which is only slightly longer than recommended. The Company states that the board benefits from his considerable experience and knowledge resulting from the length of his service as well as from his wider business experience.. Also, one of the criteria of the assessment of independence, is whether the Non-Executive Director in question has served concurrently for nine years or more with any of the Executive Directors. In this case, we note that both Executive Directors have served less than nine years concurrently with Peter Long. We also take comfort from the fact that there is sufficient independence on the Board Lastly, we have no material concerns over his performance or pay arrangements that would warrant further review of the remuneration committee, although we would prefer for him to stand down from the committee in due course. NB: In our meeting with the company in Nov 2013, we asked the SID about his future (on the Board as well as the Remuneration committee). He said he doesn't necessarily need to be on the Remuneration committee and it is probably time for a change, so he will not be on the board for the foreseeable future.

Riverstone Energy Limited AGM 14/05/2014 GUERNSEY	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports (Voting)	For (Exceptional)	As major shareholders in the Company, we were consulted extensively on the Management Incentive Plan. Whilst we had some initial reservations, the Company provided further reasons as to why it feels that the bonus banking plan is in the best interests of both participants and shareholders. There is a new CEO, a potential change in strategy, the company is in a cyclical industry and TSR does not mean much to participants. Whilst the plan is based on annual performance, there is a significant amount of deferral and the banked bonus is significantly clawed back if performance is not sustained over the long term. Therefore this is real alignment with shareholders (and also streamlines executive pay arrangements). The reduction in award levels (from 200% of basic salary in FY2012 and FY2013 to 150% of basic salary in FY2014) and the introduction of an EPS underpin for what was the non-performance element of the deferred bonus have helped us become more comfortable with this arrangement but the Remuneration committee know that we will be keeping a close eye on how this works out in practice.

Accordingly, payouts on variable remuneration have been high relative to maximum entitlements, reflecting a pay-for-performance culture. Additionally, the Company has made a number of improvements in the disclosure of its remuneration practices in this year's remuneration Basic salary increases. The Company has provided general rationale for the increases to basic salary for Executive Directors, an improvement from the 2012 remuneration report. Base salaries are still on the low side despite 12% rises for the CEO and FD Breakdown of annual bonus targets. The Company has disclosed the mechanics of the annual bonus scheme in more detail than in previous years, such that shareholders can clearly see the interplay between the profit target and the individual performance multiplier. However, the Company still does not disclose the annual profit target on a retrospective basis or, for that matter, any detail as to what were the many drivers for the individual performance multipliers. These are not material concerns in view of the Company's recent robust performance, especially given that none of the Directors maxed out their individual performance multipliers. However, shareholders may wish to monitor the Company's disclosure on this issue as the Company matures. sing key concerns identified last year. Maximum participation level for LTIP. 			particularly challenging. We would therefore ask the Committee to keep the EPS targets under review to ensure they are appropriately stretching. Single total figure. The Single Total Figures for the Executive Directors show that they received substantial increases in remuneration across the board. In particular, the single largest component of the year-over-year increase relates to vesting of the LTIP awards. This is not seen as contentious given the clear link to the Company's performance. Therefore despite 12% pay rises we are supporting this year. The multiples at the company however are already at median levels. - Performance conditions (EPs under LTIP) are not considered challenging.
	Resolution 14. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	We are supporting the Remuneration policy as the company has only just entered the FTSE250. The policy can be improved by the following- Bonus deferral: None of any annual bonus award is deferred which is not aligned with the long term interests of shareholders. - Higher executive shareholding guidelines as they are lower than 1x salary - Up to 35% of salary can vest for median/threshold performance under the LTIP which is too generous (150% max bonus)

Anadarko Petroleum Corporation AGM 13/05/2014 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1a. Elect Director Anthony R. Chase	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Core Laboratories is exposed to risks associated with bribery, climate change and the environment. The environmental risks are related to air and water pollution, water use and waste generation. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but none is available in the public domain. The company has not responded to the Carbon Disclosure Project 2013. With respect to bribery, we note that the company publishes its Code of Ethics and Corporate Responsibility. We encourage the company to disclose details of its performance in this area, such as data on employee training on the Code. 	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 5. Require a Majority Vote for the Election of Directors	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as it would give shareholders a more meaningful voice in the election of directors and further enhance the company's corporate governance.

Leucadia National Corporation AGM 13/05/2014 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1.1. Elect Director Linda L. Adamany	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Leucadia National is exposed, through its beef processing operations, to environmental risks associated with climate change and the environment. The environmental risks are related to energy use, water use and pollution. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but none is available in the public domain. The company did not respond to the Carbon Disclosure Project 2013. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, we would like to give the company more time to improve its environmental reporting.

For the year under review, the Group CEO and the CEO SLI received salary increases of 2.5% and 2.8%, respectively. Jackie Hunt, the CFO, left the Company during the year and received no termination payments other than salary, benefits and pension contributions up until the cessation of her employment with the Group. David Nish received an annual bonus equating to 131% of salary. Keith Skeoch participates in two bonus plans and received awards equal to 48% of salary and 305% of salary. The Company discloses the key achievements under each element of the annual bonus but does not provide detailed disclosure of the actual targets as they are deemed to be commercially sensitive. Our strong preference would be for increased disclosure around these elements. During the year, Mr Skeoch received combined LTIP awards of 400% of salary due to his participation in both the Group LTIP and the SLI LTIP. Conclusion: We retain some concerns our transparency as pertains to the disclosure of performance targets. However, these concerns are mitigated by the appropriate and modest way the departure of Jackie Hunt was handled by the RemCo. Namely, she received no termination payments, all of her outstanding LTIP and deferred share awards

Stock Spirits Group Plc AGM 13/05/2014 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For
	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	The annual bonus scheme for the year under review was uncapped, actual bonus awards made during the year were over 100% of salary (CEO: 143%; FD: 189%) and there is a lack of adequate disclosure of the performance targets met for those awards. In addition, the Executive Directors received Top-Up Options on IPO. The Top-Up Options are nil-cost options that were granted to nine senior executives (including the Executive Directors) on IPO. The options were not subject to performance or service conditions and were exercisable immediately upon grant. The Top-Up options were equivalent to EUR 1,486,000 for Chris Heath and EUR 629,000 for Lesley Jackson equivalent to 249% and 162% of salary, respectively. However, in mitigation, the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee observed in his statement in the annual report that, "Salaries and bonuses for 2013 were based on a very different company structure to the one we have today. Our company was listed on the London Stock Exchange on 25 October 2013, so there has only been two months of "life as public company" during 2013. Taking into account that most of 2013 was performed under a different regime as a private equity owned business, we honoured the commitments of the Company with its employees during this year by applying the remuneration policies (including annual bonus) which existed before the Company was listed." We accept this justification and welcome that the Company has now adopted a conventional remuneration structure with a capped annual bonus (140% of salary) and a PSP (2014 grant levels also at 140%), with awards subject to relative TSR performance.

Capita plc AGM 12/05/2014 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For
	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	Base pay still significantly lower than FTSE 100 and FTSE 100 Support Services. Also pension entitlements at 5% of salary is significantly lower than the norm. So despite the big increases in base pay for the new CEO and executive directors of between 30% and 40% for 2014, these still look extremely reasonable. Also the company removed the matching element of the pay arrangements which reduces the maximum potential variable remuneration from 950% of salary to 500% of salary for the CEO and 800% of salary to 450% of salary for other executives. The maximum potential bonus is 200% of salary, there is limited information on the target range and performance achieved within the Annual Report. The Company has excluded the losses of £82.1million and £64.6million arising from the disposal of its Insurance distribution business and the planned closure of its Self Invested Pensions administration business, respectively (see the auditor's report on p138) from Underlying Profit Before Tax in the Income Statement.

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

			The Annual Bonus is based on Underlying PBT. For 2013, the underlying PBT targets were achieved in full, however, the Committee used its discretion to reduce the bonus paid by 25% to 150% of basic salary given these losses. The Committee does not disclose specific performance targets or ranges under the Annual Bonus, as these are deemed to be commercially sensitive. The underlying PBT during 2013 warranted a bonus equal to 200% of salary, however, the Committee utilised its discretion to reduce bonus payments to 150% of salary, given the losses on disposals which have been excluded from Underlying PBT. Finally, shareholders will have to be satisfied with the stretch of the EPS targets under the LTIP. The performance conditions for the 2014 LTIP have been altered to include ROCE. In view of the positive changes made, we are accepting the negative structural issues e.g. There is no inner dilution limit (5%) for share scheme awards (the industry-wide guideline for share schemes) and the actual level of dilution is 6.11% and the lack of disclosure of specific performance targets under the bonus. Also there is the question of how they calculate underlying profit which we should be alert to but as they used their discretion to reduce the final bonus paid by 25%, we are supporting the report.

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. As such, a vote for this proposal is warranted.

Re-elect Peter Smith as Director	For (Exceptional)	This Director is the non independent Chairman due to having been on the board for 10 years and the board also lacks sufficient independence(i.e. independent directors represent 40% of the board whilst we expect a majority). In addition, this director sits on the remuneration committee. We consider this inappropriate as the committee should consist entirely of independent directors. As his tenure is only just over the 9 year mark, we are not raising as an issue this year. In addition, the balance of the Board does not comply with the provisions of the Code due to the retirement of Clare Hollingsworth. However, the Board is seeking to appoint a new NED, so we are not raising this as an issue.

Pembina Pipeline Corporation AGM 09/05/2014 CANADA	Resolution 1.1. Elect Director Grant D. Billing	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Pembina Pipeline is exposed to environmental risks associated with waste generation and efficiency losses in the systems operated. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but there is none in the public domain. The company did not respond to the Carbon Disclosure Project 2013. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, as the company is relatively new to the MSCI Index, we would like to give the company more time to improve its disclosure.

Appoint David Sturt, a Shareholder Nominee, as a Director	For (Exceptional)	This nominee has been proposed by Natlata, the company's largest shareholders as an Independent Non-Executive Chairman of the Company. We are supporting his appointment as we share the concerns of Natlata Partners', the Company's largest shareholder regarding poor performance i.e. years of drilling without results and subsequent debt reaching maturity, and also the lack of high standards of corporate governance. We note the current chairman is not independent nor are any of the incumbent non-executives.. He will be an independent chairman who is also very experienced and together with incumbent management should be able to rectify the company's underperformance.

	Resolution 4. Approve Performance Share Plan	For (Exceptional)	The company is going through a tough time and Stephen Hester has been appointed as CEO to improve operations and performance. There were a number of meetings with the company at the ABI and at the end of the day shareholders were generally happy with the arrangements. The company has made a number of positive changes such as removing the share matching arrangement, increasing the deferral under the LTIP and the bonus plan, extending the situations when clawback may be applied and higher share ownership requirements. The company has also acted responsibly in that due to poor performance there have been no bonuses, salary increases or LTIP vesting in 2013. Going forward the new PSP will be the sole vehicle for long term awards. However, we are concerned that companies are starting to say that long term performance conditions and targets are commercially sensitive and not disclosing these up front. In this case, one third of the 'business review scorecard' targets are not disclosed. The remain two thirds are disclosed. In the current circumstances of the company's position and a belief they will try to do the right thing we are giving the company the benefit of the doubt over the non disclosure of the one third performance targets under the PSP.

AGM 08/05/2014 UNITED KINGDOM			on the Report & Accounts as there are no women on the board and as a large FTSE 250 company we would have expected it to have made at least some progress on the Lord Davies recommendations for gender diversity particularly as the company's most recent. However, we engaged with the Company on this issue last year and the Chairman confirmed that the Board has most certainly given extensive consideration to this issue. It confirmed that Mining has not been an industry in which women have been involved at the top level in anything like representative numbers, meaning that those with appropriate length and depth of experience have been very few and far between but the Board remains very supportive of diversity and continues to seek out female candidates for future vacancies. In addition, whilst we are disappointed that the last two board appointments were male directors (one being quite recent), we welcome that the annual report states that in the forthcoming year, the Board will be seeking two appropriate candidates and hopes to appoint at least one female Board member with relevant expertise.

			the independence of the director. Also, and inclusive of the aforementioned criteria, we believe that investments trusts should ideally comprise solely of independent directors (we will accept one exception). As the annual report notes that in the forthcoming year, the Board will be seeking two appropriate candidates and this director's term in office has only just exceeded 9 years, we didn't consider it appropriate to oppose the re-election of Ian Barby.
	Resolution 6. Re-elect Colin Buchan as Director	For (Exceptional)	This director has served on the Board for 12 years. Whilst we acknowledge the AIC's code does not recommend that long serving directors should be prevented from being considered independent, we believe that lengthy service can compromise the independence of the director. Also, and inclusive of the aforementioned criteria, we believe that investments trusts should ideally comprise solely of independent directors (we will accept one exception). As Colin Buchan has served on the board for 12 years and another director (Ian Barby) has served for 9, we were going to vote against Colin Buchan's re-election but the annual report notes that in the forthcoming year, the Board will be seeking two appropriate candidates. As such, the ongoing Board refreshment makes us feel relatively comfortable.

Without doubt, there should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Without doubt, there should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

	Resolution 13. Appoint KPMG LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm in excess of ten years. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. Following discussion with the company we note that Vitec uses the services of several other major accounting firms in addition to KPMG, the incumbent auditor. This ensures they build relationships and gain an initial indication of other firms capabilities. This positions them well for providing alternatives to KPMG ahead of any re-tender. They have also said that "it is possible that we will re-tender the audit process in 2016, or earlier if KPMG's performance falls short of the Audit Committee's expectations". In conversation with us they have disclosed that other firms they use include: "PwC who assist on tax planning and internal audit; Deloitte who provide remuneration advice to the Remuneration Committee and HR support services; Crowe Clark Whitehill who are the auditors to the Vitec Group Pension Scheme (Defined Benefit Pension Scheme) and Grant Thornton." It is good to see exposure outside the big four. Consequently a vote in favour is recommended.

	Resolution 13. Reappoint Deloitte LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	Deloitte has been the external auditor of the Group for more than 20 years. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, in the annual report, the Audit Committee stated that it has carefully considered whether a formal tender process is required in respect of the external auditor. The Committee noted the ongoing proposals, both within the UK and within the EU, for regulatory reform in respect of the provision of audit services. Furthermore, the current audit partner has been in place since 2009, and Deloitte plan to introduce a new audit partner during 2014. Given the foregoing and in view of the changes within William Hill's business over the last few years, the Committee concluded that now would not be the right time to seek a tender in respect of the external auditor. The Committee will keep the matter under close review, particularly once there is clarity and certainty on the implementation of regulatory changes. So will we.

	Resolution 16. Appoint KPMG LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm in excess of ten years. KPMG Audit plc, and their legacy predecessors, have been Group auditors since 1981 without re-tender. The Audit Committee has reviewed the recent changes to the Code including the new provision for FTSE 350 companies to put the external audit contract out to tender at least every ten years. Having considered the FRC's guidance on aligning the timing of such re-tenders with the audit engagement partner rotation cycle, the Committee's current intentions are that it will initiate a re-tendering process in 2017. The Annual Report notes that the policy will be kept under review and the Committee will use its regular reviews of auditor effectiveness to assess whether an earlier date for such a re-tender would be desirable. Mandatory auditor rotation is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. As the company has said that it will retender in 2017, we are supporting the re-appointment of the auditors.

	Resolution 6. Adopt Proxy Access Right	For (Exceptional)	Proxy access, if structured properly, is an important shareholder right, one that complements other best-practice governance features and is standard in many markets. A well-crafted proxy access right can provide shareholders with a means of effecting change without incurring the expense of launching a proxy contest or selling their shares. In this case, , the proposal would discriminate against a holder of 5 percent or more of the company's shares. However as there are no 5% shareholders, we do not see this as a risk compared to the disadvantage of not having Proxy Access. Further, the proposed limit on the number of candidates nominated via proxy access may also be viewed as excessive but again, we support the principle of proxy access.

	Resolution 8. Report on Lobbying Payments and Policy	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted because additional disclosure of the company's lobbying-related policies, trade association memberships, and related oversight mechanisms would help shareholders better assess the risks and benefits associated with the company's participation in the public policy process.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

General Dynamics Corporation AGM 07/05/2014 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1.1. Elect Director Mary T. Barra	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. General Dynamics is exposed to environmental risks associated with its strategic influence over direct process impacts, product energy efficiency, material specification and designing for recycling. The company's Corporate Sustainability report, dated June 2012, contains environmental performance data which extends to 2011. We strongly encourage the company to publish more up-to-date environmental performance metrics. The company did not respond to the Carbon Disclosure Project 2013. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, we would like to give the company some time to publish updated environmental performance data.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 5. Report on Lobbying Payments and Policy	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted because additional information on the company's trade association memberships and related expenditures, as well as the company's board level oversight of its trade association participation, would enable shareholders to assess the company's lobbying-related activities and management of related risks and opportunities more comprehensively.

Also on engagement we were told that if Andy Sukawaty were to remain as chairman, the company would speak to leading shareholders to explain why, even though he is considered not independent, that the company feels it would be appropriate for him to remain chairman. Meggitt PLC AGM 07/05/2014 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For
	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	The Company has made a number of positive changes during the year, such as the introduction of a bonus deferral element and clawback provisions, as well as increased shareholding guidelines for Executive Directors. The Company has also simplified its remuneration arrangements by replacing its Equity Participation Plan (EPP) and Executive Share Option Scheme (ESOS) with a new LTIP. However, we highlight that the LTIP performance conditions lack a relative measure and that the pension allowance for Directors is very generous (50%). However, we note that newly appointed Directors will receive 25%, which is more in line with standard practice elsewhere. During the year, the Committee increased the minimum shareholding guidelines for Executive Directors from 100% to 300% of basic salary

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	Significant increases of 15.8% and 10.8% made to the Chief Operating Officer and FDs base salary in 2014 to reflect market salaries and change in scope and responsibilities of the Executive directors. Being just outside the FTSE100 at 125, the level of base pay looks reasonable. Under the LTIP, for 2014 award levels under the PSP will be increased to 200% of salary for all executive directors. Awards will remain subject to a mixture of EPS (75% of the award) and relative TSR (25% of the award). EPS targets have been strengthened and are 40% to 70% EPS growth over the three performance years. Market forecasts are indicating EPS growth over the three performance years of approximately 63% (Thomson ONE). This does not look particularly challenging at the lower levels. Pensions are at the lower end. All in all, other than some worries about the EPS targets, the arrangements look acceptable, hence we are supporting.

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Plum Creek Timber Company, Inc. AGM 06/05/2014 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1a. Elect Director Rick R. Holley	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Plum Creek Timber is exposed to health & safety risks in its operations. We encourage the company to publish quantitative data on its health & safety performance, such as injury frequency rates. Under normal circumstances we would be withholding support, however, we note that the company has been reviewing its sustainability practices in 2013 and commits to establishing quantifiable metrics. We strongly encourage the company to include health & safety issues in this process. Without quantitative data on the company's health & safety performance, we will consider deteriorating our vote next year.
