	Resolution 1.3. Elect Director M. Michele Burns	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Alexion Pharmaceuticals is exposed to environmental risks relating to air and water pollution, water use and hazardous waste. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance data but none is available in the public domain. The company has not responded to the Carbon Disclosure Project.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. 	Resolution 1.4. Elect Director Rudy F. deLeon	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. General Dynamics is exposed to environmental risks associated with its strategic influence over direct process impacts, product energy efficiency, material specification and designing for recycling. We would expect this company to publish data on its recent environmental performance. Unfortunately, the company's Corporate Sustainability report, dated June 2012, contains environmental performance data which extends to 2011. In addition, the company has not responded to the Carbon Disclosure Project. We are deteriorating our vote this year to reflect our disappointment at the lack of quantitative disclosure on the company's recent environmental performance.

			of ten years). Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, the Audit Committee notes that it is mindful of the provisions relating to audit tendering in the UK Corporate Governance Code and the FRC's Guidance on Audit Committees to put the external audit contract out to tender at least every ten years. It further notes that the FRC guidelines provide that audit tendering should normally fit the five year cycle of lead audit partner rotation and that the Company's current lead audit partner has now completed three years of a five year cycle. Taking this into account, and on the basis of the work above, the Committee concluded that the independence criteria under the relative standards continued to be met and accordingly it was not necessary to tender for the audit work at this time. We are comfortable with this explanation.

Given that PepsiCo has already undertaken a number of sustainability initiatives, formalizing the company's current sustainability practices through the establishment of a sustainability-focused board committee would not be unduly burdensome.
	Resolution 5. Pro-Rata Vesting of Equity Awards	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted because pro rata vesting of equity awards upon a change in control would better align the interests of executives with those of shareholders than fully accelerated vesting of equity.
	Resolution 6. Phillips 66 AGM 06/05/2015 UNITED STATES	Resolution 1a. Elect Director J. Brian Ferguson	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would be withdrawing support for the election of this director because of concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. Phillips 66 is exposed to risks associated with climate change and bribery. With respect to climate change, we note that the company now publishes emissions data for its US refining activities but we would like the company to clarify the percentage of overall operations covered by this data. We also urge the company to provide a public response to the Carbon Disclosure Project. With respect to bribery, we acknowledge that the company publishes its Code of Business Ethics and Conduct and accompanying handbook but we would like to see disclosure on the company's performance in this area, such as data on employee training. We will continue to vote in support in recognition of the improved environmental reporting but we look forward to enhanced reporting next year.

	Resolution 19. Re-elect Paul Skinner as Director	For (Exceptional)	This non-executive director is not independent due to tenure and sits on the remuneration committee. We consider this inappropriate as the committee should consist entirely of independent directors. However, both Ruth Markland and Paul Skinner are also expected to step down from the Board by the end of 2015. On engagement we agreed to vote in favour of Paul Skinner as one of the more long serving members of the board to help the board see through the board transitions.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

Archambeau	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Nordstrom is exposed to environmental risks associated with its supply chain, in terms of the environmental attributes of products sold and packaging used. We acknowledge that the company reports on its progress against environmental targets in its 2013 Progress Report. We would, however, like to encourage the company to publish absolute or normalised data on a trend basis. The company submitted a response to the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) 2014 but it is not publicly available. We have deteriorated our vote this year to reflect our disappointment at the ongoing lack of comprehensive raw data on environmental performance, and the lack of public CDP response.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	The Remuneration Committee has provided the newly appointed CEO with contractual change of control provisions that are excessive under current best practice (i.e he may be entitled to receive an amount equal to one year's base salary, target level cash bonus, target level long term incentive plan award, and the immediate vesting of all long term incentive plan awards that have not yet vested will take place). However, this is because at the time of appointment the Company had received an offer for the Company from IAG that is at a level the Board would be willing to recommend, subject to being satisfied with the manner in which IAG proposed to address the interests of relevant parties. This presents a significantly less secure environment for recruiting at board level than in normal circumstance. Furthermore, the CEO has no entitlement in regard to a change in control if, following such change in control, he is offered the position of CEO of the Company on remuneration not less beneficial to him than that provided for under his contract of service with the Company. We are relatively comfortable with these explanations due to the specific circumstances and given that his potential levels of pay are not excessive as his salary (EUR 450,000), bonus (150% of salary) and LTIP levels (150% of

	Resolution 3. Re-elect Geoffrey Howe as Director	For (Exceptional)	The Remuneration Committee has provided the newly appointed CEO with contractual change of control provisions that are excessive under current best practice (i.e he may be entitled to receive an amount equal to one year's base salary, target level cash bonus, target level long term incentive plan award, and the immediate vesting of all long term incentive plan awards that have not yet vested will take place). However, this is because at the time of appointment the Company had received an offer for the Company from IAG that is at a level the Board would be willing to recommend, subject to being satisfied with the manner in which IAG proposed to address the interests of relevant parties. This presents a significantly less secure environment for recruiting at board level than in normal circumstance. Furthermore, the CEO has no entitlement in regard to a change in control if, following such change in control, he is offered the position of CEO of the Company on remuneration not less beneficial to him than that provided for under his contract of service with the Company. We are relatively comfortable with these explanations due to the specific circumstances and given that his potential levels of pay are not excessive as his salary (EUR 450,000), bonus (150% of salary) and LTIP levels (150% of salary) appear to be below, or at least no more than median of the peer average.

Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. The company says that on the basis of the Audit Committee's continued satisfaction with the performance and effectiveness of PwC, it has not considered it necessary to date to require the firm to tender for the audit work. The Committee is actively monitoring the EU audit directive and ongoing discussions in this area at the FRC, the EU and the Competition Commission. Taking account of the changes to the regulatory regime relating to mandatory audit tendering, the Committee expects to conduct an audit tender before 2018. On this basis, we are supporting Resolution 3. Authorize Share Repurchase Program and Reissuance of Repurchased Shares	For (Exceptional)	This authority equates to 19.95% of the Company's issued share capital which exceeds the industry-wide guideline of 15 percent. The board explains that the authorization is requested in order to: Maintain the efficiency of capital allocation. Allow the board greater flexibility in supporting the company's share price and liquidity. Support potential strategic agreements that would allow the company to expand its sphere of activities. Constitute a pool of treasury shares that could possibly service the conversion of outstanding convertible bonds. Service the warrants granted under the non-convertible bond issuance "Azimut 2009-2016 Subordinated 4%" Comply with terms of the convertible bond issuance "Azimut 2013-2020 Subordinated 2.125%". This authorization would replace the previous authorization granted on April 24, 2014. We engaged with the company last year and agreed to approve this resolution as it is within the limit set by Italian law.

	Resolution 4. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	The remuneration arrangements do not include any form of variable remuneration. However, the company explains that pursuit of long-term results is assured by the executive holdings in the company. In fact, all directors (except for the two independent directors) are shareholders of the company and their shares are blocked by the shareholder syndicate. The Remuneration Committee includes executive directors. We spoke to the company last year on this issue. It is nice to see a company where there are no incentives at all, only long term shareholdings (as agreed in the Management Buyout in 2002, to align with the long term.

Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

Greggs plc AGM 30/04/2015 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For
	Resolution 2. Appoint KPMG LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm in since 1984 (i.e in excess of ten years). Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, we note that the company conducted a tender process in 2014 which resulted in KPMG being retained as auditor. The Committee decided that the only firms with the local capability to undertake the audit were the 'Big Four'. PwC had been engaged by the Company in a consultancy role which created a conflict of interest and so were unable to participate in the tender process. Consequently E&Y, Deloitte and the incumbent auditor, KPMG, were invited to join the tender process. All three firms met the CEO, the Chair of the Audit Committee, the Executive Directors and key senior managers within the business and were also given access to relevant Company information. The three firms submitted formal proposals which were evaluated along with the feedback from the individual meetings and two of the firms were invited to make presentations to a selection panel comprising the Chair of the Audit Committee and another Committee member, the FD, the Head of Business Assurance and several senior finance managers. The presentations were scored against pre-determined parameters. The panel concluded that KPMG had the stronger proposal and that it would recommend to the Board that KPMG be retained as auditor. It is further stated in the Audit Committee report that the Committee continues to monitor legislative and best practice changes in this area, in particular the UK Government and the Financial Reporting Council's responses to the recent EU Directive and Regulation on statutory audit.

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

			KPMG has been the Company's auditor for more than 20 years and the transitional rules in the EU Directive require an initial change of audit firms no later than 2020. Having reappointed KPMG in 2014 the Committee expects to change audit firms in accordance with the requirements of the EU Directive. The Audit Committee will continue to consider annually whether to conduct an audit tender for audit quality or independence reasons. Ideally the Company should have changed auditor given the amount of time KPMG has served. However, we are comfortable with the explanations provided. If we were active/large shareholders in the company we would be asking for more details on the Tender/scoring process.

	Resolution 13. Elect Genevieve Shore as Director	For
	Resolution 14. Reappoint KPMG LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm since 2004 (i.e in excess of ten years). Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, according to the 2014 Audit Committee report, the KPMG audit partner, Stuart Burdass, will be rotated off the audit on 30 April 2015 and the new audit partner's five-year term will end in 2020, in accordance with the FRC's Ethics Standard 3 (Revised). The Committee considered the length of KPMG's tenure and the results of a detailed internal questionnaire when assessing their continued effectiveness, independence and reappointment. The Committee continues to consider KPMG to be independent and when considering the most suitable timing for a future audit tender, took account of FRC guidance concerning the alignment of the tender date with the rotation of the audit partner and new EU legislation, which requires mandatory rotation of the audit firm every ten years. Given the explanation provided and that KPMG has only served as Auditor slightly longer than recommended , we are comfortable in supporting their re-election for the time being, but would have have liked to have seen a commitment to Tender before 2020.

Tullow Oil plc AGM 30/04/2015 UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 1. Accept Financial Statements and Statutory Reports	For (Exceptional)	Tullow Oil is exposed to risks related to climate change. We acknowledge that the company reported its emissions to the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) 2014. We strongly urge the company to set a reduction target for GHG emissions. In its CDP 2014 response, the company states that its emissions in the coming year will depend on the readiness of the Atuabo onshore power plant in Ghana to receive gas from the Jubilee field. The company also states that it will review the appropriateness of setting carbon emissions reduction targets in 2015. In light of this commitment, we will continue to support the R&As. We will, however, be scrutinising the company's reporting next year for details of any targets.

	Resolution 15. Reappoint Deloitte LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm since 2002 (i.e in excess of ten years). Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, it is stated in the annual report that the audit contract was last tendered in 2004. The Audit Committee has assessed the implications of the new regulation (Order by the Competition and Markets Authority) and the transitional rules set out in Article 6 of the Order. According to those rules, the Company is required, at the latest, to run a competitive tender process in respect of the appointment of an external auditor for FY2024. The Audit Committee has agreed to recommend to the Board that they follow these transitional rules with an annual review of this approach. Given Deloitte's term as auditor is not much over our preferred term of 10 years and the commitment made to keep a Tender under annual review, we are comfortable in supporting the Auditor's reappointment for the time being. However, we would expect the Company in due course to commit to conduct a Tender much sooner than 2024.

Also, and inclusive of the aforementioned criteria, we believe that investments trusts should ideally comprise solely of independent directors (we will accept one exception). However, we are exceptionally supporting his re-election at the AGM as we welcome the fact that during the year the Board appointed 2 additional independent directors. Should the company obtain shareholder approval for the continuation of the company (proposed under resolution 13), we would expect one of the two long serving directors to step down in due course, otherwise we are unlikely to be able to continue supporting their re-election.

	Resolution 4. Re-elect Grenville Turner as Director	For (Exceptional)	Grenville Turner stepped down as CEO of the Company and took on the role of Non-executive Chairman on 1 September 2014. According to the annual report, the Board consulted at length with major shareholders in advance of the proposed appointment. The Board decided to offer the position to Grenville Turner, subject to the following conditions: "that the appointment to Chairman would be for a limited period of up to two years, to provide a period of continuity in the business prior to appointing an independent chairman; that David Watson be appointed to a newly created position of deputy chairman which would provide enhanced independent oversight; that as a result there would be a strong preference for the new CEO officer to be an external appointment; and that the Committee acknowledged that there would need to be considerable effort and focus by the Board to ensure that the documented separation of roles and responsibilities between chairman and CEO was upheld and that collectively they enabled both appointments to have the space and confidence to fulfil their responsibilities". We welcome the explanation detailed in the ARA. We will support this resolution for the year under review but keep the situation under watch, given the conditions. As a general rule we expect good succession planning to be in place, mitigating the need for this issue to arise.

We do not generally support former CEOs becoming chairmen, and the company has not provided sufficient explanation or justification. However, in the current situation when the company is looking for a successor for the CEO who retires this year we feel it would not be appropriate to further destabilise the board. We have also engaged for many years with John Hamer and believe that

	Resolution 8. Re-elect Ron Mackintosh as Director	For (Exceptional)	This non-executive director is not independent due to tenure and sits on the audit and remuneration committees. We consider this inappropriate as the committees should consist entirely of independent directors. However, his tenure is on the cusp of 10 years and he company engaged with the largest 13 shareholders in 2013 on their wish to re-appoint him. In view of the recent refreshment of the board this is now less of a concern although it would be helpful if he stood down as SID.

The board asserts that recent experiences with global litigation have shown that there are significant escalating costs and uncertainties where litigation is brought in multiple jurisdictions having less connection to the company. Ontario is the jurisdiction with the most meaningful link to Yamana Gold, which is incorporated in Canada with its head office in Ontario. The board states that Ontario courts have the most experience with the laws governing the company and a sound and reliable reputation with respect to complex commercial litigation. The board believes that forum selection does not alter shareholders' substantive rights and only addresses the forum in which they may advance certain claims.

	Resolution 1.3. Elect Director J. Michael Evans	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. We welcome the dialogue we have had with Acacia Mining on the situation in North Mara and the positive steps that have been taken and hope to see continued improvement. However, although on the right trajectory, it is still a serious situation. We would also like to see improved reporting on their response. As Barrick Gold is the majority shareholder in Acacia Mining, with an approximately 64% share ownership, we are offering a vote of abstain this year.

We do not support proposed terms of office exceeding 3 years as we feel longer terms in office reduces director accountability to shareholders. However, we are mindful that the proposed term is just one year over our preferred term and given they are one of the independent directors on the board (which is lacking independence), we are instead reflecting our concerns over the directors who are conflicted.

	Resolution 9. Reelect Aldo Cardoso as Director	For (Exceptional)	The proposed term of office for this director is four years. We do not support proposed terms of office exceeding 3 years as we feel longer terms in office reduces director accountability to shareholders. In addition, he is technically not independent (having served on the board for 11 years) and there is a lack of independent directors on the board. We are not voting against as to reflect the fact that there has been a number of board changes and some longer serving directors would ensure some continuity.
	Resolution 10. Reelect Francoise Malrieu as Director	For (Exceptional)	The proposed term of office for this director is four years. We do not support proposed terms of office exceeding 3 years as we feel longer terms in office reduces director accountability to shareholders. 	Resolution 3. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

	Resolution 12. Reappoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm since 2003 (i.e in excess of ten years). Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. On engagement the company has said that it will consider re-tendering in 2016. Based on this information we will vote in favour this year. However, if there is no change in 2016 we will have to reconsider.
	Resolution 13. Authorise the Audit and Risk Committee to Fix Remuneration of Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The non-audit consulting fees for the year were significant at GBP 1.5m and being more than 25% of the audit fees of GBP 2.6m. The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services. This arrangement has the potential to open the auditor process to a wide range of conflicts of interest.

	Resolution 2. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	There is a lack of adequate disclosure of performance targets met for bonus awards made for the year (which were subject to operating profit (66.7%) and operating cash flow (33.3%) due to commercially sensitive reasons)). However, we are mindful that bonuses were relatively low (at 28% of salary) and also coming off relatively low salaries. We are comfortable with these levels against the performance of the company for the year under review. In addition, we have engaged with the company on this issue and will continue to do so.

	Resolution 3. Reappoint Ernst & Young LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	The company has retained the same audit firm in excess of ten years. Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, we are mindful that E&Y have only served as Servelec's auditors for slightly longer than recommended (14 years) and there are no audit related issues that suggest a change is necessary at this time. So instead of opposing the auditors we will engage with the Company on this issue and review our position next year

JERSEY	Report
	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Policy	For (Exceptional)	Shareholder approval is being sought for a new Remuneration Policy following the strategic remuneration review which took place during 2014. The benchmarking group for determining Executives' overall remuneration package, and in particular for setting base salaries has been amended. Malus and clawback provisions are to be in line with best practice. There is no specific shareholding requirement in the Policy, except that Executives are encouraged to own shares in the Company equivalent to 200% of salary for the CEO and 150% for the CFO. A number of changes has been made to the LTIP arrangements including reducing the overall maximum, shareholder approval is being sought for the new LTIP. Maximum LTIP has been set at 840% of salary for all executives which seems excessive but this has in fact been reduced from 1000% this year. However, the actual LTIP awards to the CEO have been increased by approximately 8% to the maximum permitted under the policy. Base pay is at median. The positive aspect of the remuneration arrangements is that the performance conditions are aligned with company's strategy and disclosure is good. Despite the high multiple on the LTIP this is a reduced maximum from previous policy so it makes sense that we support this resolution.

Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, the Audit Committee has concluded that, as the lead audit partner at KPMG is rotating in 2013, then in accordance with the transitional guidance issued by the FRC, the audit would be put out to tender by 2018. It has stated that the new EU audit reform framework, if approved, would not impact upon the Committee's decision to put the audit out to tender by 2018. We are comfortable with this commitment.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.
	Resolution 5. Report on Lobbying Payments	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this resolution is warranted, as additional information about the company's direct lobbying payments would allow shareholders to understand the company's comprehensive public policy activities. In addition, further information about the company's direct and indirect lobbying policies and oversight mechanisms would allow shareholders to better assess the company's management of these activities.
	Resolution 6. Include Carbon Reduction as a Performance Measure for Senior Executive Compensation	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as the addition of carbon emission reduction metrics to the company's executive compensation program would provide additional incentive to manage and mitigate any related risks.

In addition, he sits on the audit committee which comprises of less than a majority of independent directors. Furthermore independent directors represent less than one third of the Board. However, we have exceptionally supported his re-election as his term in office has only just exceeded recommended guidelines (for assessing independence) and he needs to be on board to counter balance the influence of the major shareholder which has three representatives (on the Board). An independent director was appointed during the year but this was to replace an independent director so we would like to see some improvement next year to continue to support the re-election of the chairman.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.

	Resolution 7. Approve Special Audit Re: Acquisition, Operation, and Sale of Dutch Energy Provider Essent; Appoint Dr. Zitzelsberger GmbH as Special Auditor	For (Exceptional)	In resolutions 7-9, the shareholder Dela Beteiligungs GmbH submitted formal requests for three special audits (Sonderprüfungen) to investigate the following matters: Resolution 7: The acquisition, operation, and partial sale of the Dutch energy utility provider Essent Resolution 8: The transactions concluded by management in relation to the announced delisting of the subsidiary Lechwerke AG, and Resolution 9: The transactions concluded by management in relation to the supervision of affiliated companies, namely RWE Polska Contracting sp. z.o.o. A vote for the special audit with respect to the acquisition, operation, and partial sale of the Dutch energy utility provider Essent (res 7) is warranted because the shareholder has provided a conclusive presentation and rationale of serious financial matters, whereas the management and supervisory boards of RWE AG have not provided any compelling statement or transparent answer to these questions (other than that board recommends that shareholders do not approve these requests for special audits). Shareholders deserve a better response than this. A EUR 4 billion write-down (of a EUR 8 billion investment) on an acquisition, is not a small but a material write-down, even when considering the size of the company. The share price has declined by more than 60 percent in the last five years, with the company underperforming market and sector peers, and the proponent is raising good points about losses in asset values and cost leakage. A one sentence answer, as provided by RWE, does not give

UNITED KINGDOM	Resolution 3. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	Following a large level of dissent against last year's remuneration report and comments from shareholders, the Remuneration Committee has strengthened the EPS targets for LTIP awards granted in FY2014 and FY2015. We also welcome the introduction of the additional two year holding period which will apply for LTIP awards from 2015. However, we have advised the Company that we still think that the amount of award vesting for threshold performance(30%) is too high, given annual grants continue to be at 150% of salary and as we do not consider EPS growth of RPI+6% to be particularly challenging for the according level of payout. Therefore whilst we are supporting the remuneration report this year (to reflect the material improvements), we will review again next year. If we still think the same regarding threshold vesting, it is likely that we will be unsupportive next year. The other issue we have previously raised with the company was the lack of retrospective disclosure of specific targets on bonus awards. We consider that that there has been an improvement (although we note that the remuneration report does not discuss the performance measures and relative weightings which will be used for the FY2015 bonus).

The Chairman's role on a board is to evaluate and review the performance of management, and to ensure there are sufficient checks and balances; this role is obviously compromised when the Chairman is also the CEO. However, we are exceptionally supporting this year as the company does provide strong justification for the arrangements, there is a lead director and there is a good level of independence (and diversity) on the board which to some degree mitigate the risks. This is something we may not be able to continue supporting of course.

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an

	Resolution 5. Re-elect Stephen Hemsley as Director	For (Exceptional)	He is the non-independent chairman (due to tenure and various former executive roles) and the board is not a majority independent. However, we continue to be relatively comfortable with this arrangement, given his track record and wealth of experience in what is a fast growing international business. Also we want him to remain chairman to ensuring some continuity and stability given there has been significant board change over the last year of so, including the departure of its CEO (who took up the position of CEO of Saga) ,the departure of not one but two FDs in the space of 9 months and a number of non-executive director changes.
	Resolution 6. Re-elect Colin Halpern as Director	For
	Resolution 7. Re-elect David Wild as Director	For
	Resolution 8. Re-elect Michael Shallow as Director	For (Exceptional)	This non-executive director is not independent due to tenure and sits on the audit and remuneration committees. We consider this inappropriate as the committees should consist entirely of independent directors. However, this arrangement is temporary as it is noted that Michael Shallow has agreed to temporarily stay until a new NED is appointed. In addition, he has only just served longer than recommended and we note that there has been a significant amount of board change over the last year of so, including the refreshing of non-executives. Hence, support for his re-election is warranted to ensure some continuity of experience on the Domino Pizza board.

	Resolution 1d. Elect Director Leland J. Hein	For (Exceptional)	We have concerns over the lack of Social, Environmental and Ethical (SEE) policy and disclosure at this company. We would register our concerns by voting on the Report and Accounts but given this is not available to vote on, we typically flag our concerns by withholding support on director reappointment resolutions. However, as this director has recently joined the board and has not been part of the board and decision making, we are supporting their election and we are not applying our vote on SEE disclosure to this director. Fastenal is exposed to the risk of bribery in its operations, as well as environmental risks. The environmental risks are associated with the supply chain, in terms of the environmental attributes of products sold and packaging used. We note that the company submitted its first public response to the Carbon Disclosure Project in the 2014 iteration but we are disappointed that no quantitative data was included. The company does not publish any other quantitative environmental performance data. With respect to bribery, we strongly encourage the company to publish its code of ethics, as well as to disclose details of its management approach and performance in this area.

	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. This proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director warrants support.

	Resolution 7. Advisory Vote on Compensation of Herve Philippe, Member of the Management Board since Jun. 24, 2014	For (Exceptional)	Service contracts allow for severance payments in excess of 2 times salary (up to 18 months (base salary + bonus target)). We believe that severance payments should be no greater than 2 times salary as otherwise they could represent a reward for failure. However, his overall pay appears to be below peers, which is a mitigating factor. We will review this again next year. Another concern is that LTIP awards can vest after 2 years (failing to act as a long term incentive tool). However, we note that he did not receive any LTIP awards during the year under review, so this is another issue we will be keeping under review.

	Resolution A. Amend Article 17 of Bylaws Re: Absence of Double Voting Rights	For (Exceptional)	Under this resolution, PhiTrust Active Investors with eight other institutional shareholders including us have co-filed this resolution proposing to amend article 17.3 of the company's bylaws in order to maintain the one-share, one-vote principle. This is because management has not presented the vote voluntarily to shareholders, to opt-out of the automatic acquisition of double-voting rights for registered shares held for two years provided for by the French law modified in March 2014 (Florange Act). Double voting rights will entrench management making it harder to make changes at the company and will protect the company from takeovers. Although we are very supportive of arrangements that can lead to a more long term approach to investment, we worry that awarding double voting rights will just protect the company from the market potentially to the detriment of shareholders (and shareholder value). If the company is doing what the shareholders want, then they do not need this protection. Many other CAC 40 companies are keeping to the one share one vote rule. In addition, there is great importance in not giving the control of the group to another minority shareholder (Bolloré who has seen as increase in his voting rights to over 12% of the shares thanks to the Florange law!

However, we are mindful that he will be stepping down next year. In addition, he is only one of two directors who has served on the Board longer than 5 years so we consider that his years of experience on the board is valuable and provides continuity.

	Resolution 25. Approve Strategic Climate Change Resilience for 2035 and Beyond	For (Exceptional)	This resolution is proposed by "Aiming for A" a coalition of UK asset owners and mutual fund managers for a larger co-filing group. The "Aiming for A" coalition includes the £150bn Local Authority Pension Fund Forum and the largest members of the £15bn Church Investors Group and was convened by CCLA Investment Management in 2011/12.. The resolution directs that routine annual reporting from 2016 includes further information about and/or what future actions the Company is planning to take on: (i) ongoing operational emissions management; (ii) asset portfolio resilience to the International Energy Agency's (IEA's) scenarios; (iii) low-carbon energy research and development (R&D) and investment strategies; (iv) relevant strategic key performance indicators (KPIs) and executive incentives; and (v) public policy positions relating to climate change. The resolution further states that this additional ongoing annual reporting could build on the disclosures already made to CDP (formerly the Carbon Disclosure Project) and/or those already made within the Company's Energy Outlook, Sustainability Review and Annual Report. We have been strongly supportive of this coalition and proposal, and whilst we did not co-file the resolution, the text used in the resolution drew on the Institutional Investors Group on Climate Change (IIGCC) Investor Expectations document (which Aviva Investors was involved in creating) - http://www.iigcc.org/publications/publication/investor-expectations-oil-and-gas-company-strategy We welcome the fact that the Board supports the resolution too.

	Resolution 12. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	5.5% respectively. Companies are expected to provide a sufficient justification in the annual report for any increases above inflation or those offered to the wider workforce. Lavendon explains that the base salaries for the Executive Directors were reviewed as part of the Committee's overall review of its remuneration policy. The salary increase for Don Kenny reflects the Committee's desire to position his salary in line with the market rate for the role and his experience and contribution to the role since his appointment in 2011. The salary increase for Alan Merrell reflects his performance during the year and covers a two year period following his last review in January 2013. Large salary increases can be controversial. In this case, Lavendon has provided a justification for the changes and the salary of Don Kenny remains slightly above the lower quartile when compared with other companies in the FTSE Smallcap index. We also believe that management is doing a good job. Any future salary increases will be kept under strict review. Therefore, despite the significant rise we are not raising an issue this time.

The performance period is 3 years but can be extended for a further two years if targets are not met. However, in mitigation, these are relative targets measuring performance against the EPRA benchmark index, the amount is capped and level of awards have remained stable over the past years and is not seen as excessive. In view of the positive changes over 2014 e.g. better disclosure on pay (although not yet perfect) and especially changing their by-laws to protect the one share one vote principle, and the lack of other significant issues, we are supporting this resolution this year.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. We support this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director.

The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services. This arrangement has the potential to open the auditor process to a wide range of conflicts of interest. In this case the non-audit fees have been elevated by the expenses incurred in connection with the company's IPO. These expenses (DKK 13 million) represent more than half of the other fees. Without these fees the percentage of total fees attributable to non-audit fees would have been circa 42 percent. Therefore, in this case, the elevated level of non-audit fees can be justified.

	Resolution 13. Request Board to Review How Shares are to be Given Equal Voting Rights and to Present a Proposal to That Effect at the 2016 AGM	For (Exceptional)	Shareholder Einar Hellborn proposes that the general meeting require the board of directors to explore how Class A and Class B shares can be given equal voting rights and to propose a plan for achieving this to the next AGM. It is merely a proposal that the board until the next AGM evaluate a proper way to eliminate supervoting shares. The shareholder does not, by himself, present any suggestions of the procedure, or if compensation in any way should be attributed to shareholders for their loss of voting power. Statistical evidence suggests that dual-class structures such as those of Ericsson impact investment decisions. The "Report on the Proportionality Principle in the European Union" (2007), commissioned by the European Commission, found that 75.7 percent of 239 surveyed shareholders had either a "negative" or "very negative" perception of multiple voting rights shares. In addition, 92 percent of the surveyed shareholders (weighted by size of assets under management) look at multiple voting rights when making investment decisions, which was a higher percentage than any other control-enhancing mechanism mentioned in the survey. Exploring equalising the voting rights of A and B shares may make an investment in the company more attractive.

Schedule of voting on company resolutions

	Representative of Employee Shareholders to the Board		one employee shareholder representative out of 6 employee candidates. This is in accordance with French law (and Article 11 of the Vinci bylaws), which stipulates that whenever the company's or the group's employees control more than 3% of the company's issued capital, at least one director must be elected to represent these shareholders on the board. In this case, Vinci's board has not disclosed any specific recommendation to vote in favour of one specific candidate. However, it points out that Josiane Marquez is the candidate who received the most votes during the process of designation within the supervisory boards of the mutual funds Castor, which is the mutual fund having the highest holding in Vinci share capital. Given the satisfactory level of board independence (53 percent) and the alternative nature of these candidates, the election of Josiane Marquez merits support, and therefore we have to vote against the other candidates (Items 8 to 12).

Once elected, the successful nominee will serve as the company's inside director for a three-year term. A vote for item 2.1 (Yoon Bong-Ho) and a vote against Item 2.2 (Lee Sun-Woo) is warranted as Yoon appears to have the more relevant experience and expertise.

	Resolution 6. Ratify KPMG as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would not have supported this resolution (we note that a vote against is not a valid vote option) as the non-audit consulting fees for the year were significant at DKK 11m and were more than 25% of the audit fees of DKK 25m. The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services and this arrangement has the potential to open the auditor process to a wide range of conflicts of interest. However, we have exceptionally supported this year as the non-audit fees have come down significantly from last year and now equate to just over £1m.

There is a SID, James Morley, who has been on the board for eight years. The CEO has been in place for six years and Christopher Harrison, an independent NED has been on the board for three years. While this is something we should ask the company, in view of the continual refreshment of the board and the fact there is a new FD in place this year we are supporting his re-election.

	Resolution 3. Approve Equity Plan Financing	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would have voted against this proposal due to a lack of disclosure on this resolution. However, we recently met with the Company which provided sufficient explanations behind this proposals and the intended terms of the option awards. The Company explained that there was a real need to issue new shares as they had run out of headroom to incentive management and employees with share option awards. We agreed that awarding options is a much better mechanism than making big increases to salary as they will only pay out if share price increases (so pay for performance). The company confirmed that the options would start vesting from 2 years with all options vesting by 4 years. It is unlikely that performance targets will be included as they will be worth nothing if the share price doesn't increase. Therefore, this is the performance condition. Unlike many other businesses/sectors, the Company believes that the share price will only move (and outperform) if they are successful in delivering on the key strategic objectives (i.e bringing successful drugs to market). We are relatively comfortable with the shorter than normal vesting largely because when averaged out the vesting is longer than 3 years and we are also comfortable with the explanation as to why no performance targets will be included. The total full dilution deriving from the outstanding plans and the proposed capital increase would equal

	Resolution 4. Amend Bylaws to Establish a Board Committee on Sustainability	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted as the establishment of a board committee on sustainability would further enhance the company's ability to manage sustainability risks in the long-term and would better ensure effective implementation of the company's environmental policies and initiatives. Moreover, given that Starbucks has already undertaken a number of sustainability initiatives and implemented related oversight mechanisms, enhancing oversight of the company's current sustainability practices through the establishment of a dedicated sustainability-focused board committee would not be unduly burdensome.
	Resolution 5. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of

We acknowledge that the AIC's code does not recommend that long serving directors should be prevented from being considered independent, but we believe that lengthy service can compromise the independence of the director. Also, and inclusive of the aforementioned criteria, we believe that investments trusts should ideally comprise solely of independent directors (although we would typically accept one exception) and we note that there is another non-independent director on the board (Martin Negre). As such, our default stance would be to vote against Ian Barby. However, firstly, we are mindful that 11 years on the board is not going to materially compromise his independence. Secondly, and

The Chairman's role on a board is to evaluate and review the performance of management, and to ensure there are sufficient checks and balances; this role is obviously compromised when the Chairman is also the CEO. However, we continue to be relatively comfortable with this arrangement particularly as GS Home Shopping Inc is a small company with assets under KRW 2 trillion. Another mitigating factor is that independent directors represent a third of the board and this composition is better than the required level (under Korean law, small companies are required to have a board on which one-fourth of

	Resolution 2. Elect One Inside Director and Two Outside Directors (Bundled)	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would have voted against this resolution to reflect concerns over the poor oversight of the Board in respect of the KRW 10.6 trillion land acquisition (roughly USD 10 billion) that the company made, together with its affiliates Hyundai Mobis and Kia Motors Corporation. The acquisition shocked the market as the bid price was nearly three times the appraised value of the property, and sent the company's shares down by nearly 8% and wiping out a total of KRW 8.4 trillion in market cap among the three companies. This incidence raises concerns regarding the board's decision making, and transparency and effectiveness in communicating the economic consequences of a transaction of such magnitude to shareholders. However, given that two of the director nominees are new independent director candidates (which should strengthen the board), we have exceptionally supported this resolution. Notwithstanding, the board should establish a fully independent nominating committee to ensure objective and independent director nomination process free of undue influence from management, and unbundle director election to allow shareholders greater flexibility in casting their votes. If we were able to vote on directors individually, we would have voted against the incumbent executive director up for re-election.

We feel that the Company should disclose such vital information in a timely manner so shareholders can make an informed decision on governance and voting matters ahead of the AGM. While its decision last year to voluntarily release these documents ahead of regulatory deadline was a positive step forward in providing greater disclosure and transparency, the company has seemingly taken a step backward this year. However, given the Company has chosen to bundle the R&As and dividend under a single resolution (something else that is poor practice, but again common in Korea) we have exceptionally supported to ensure that the dividend is not jeopardised, particularly as the company has responded to concerns over capital retention by increasing the dividend payout. We also note that the company has confirmed in its proxy filings that its auditor has not found any material issues with the company's financial statements based on the audit performed to date.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. On this basis, a vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted.
	Resolution 5. Pro-rata Vesting of Equity Awards	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal is warranted because pro-rata vesting of equity will further align the interests of executives with shareholders.

	Resolution 4. Elect Vagn Sorensen as Director	For (Exceptional)	Vagn Sørensen is a Senior Industrial Advisor to EQT Partners, a substantial shareholder of the Company holding approximately 20% of the issued share capital. According to the annual report, the Company does not consider the Non-Executive Chairman to be independent upon appointment for the purposes of the UK Corporate Governance Code. The Directors believe that this non-compliance is justified, as a result of his knowledge of the Group's business, his experience in the industry and the continuity his service provides. Also, he was appointed as Chairman when the Company was a private entity and only sits on the Nomination Committee. The overall balance of the Board and the composition of the key Committees comply with the provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code. As such, we are comfortable in supporting his re-election this year (being the year in which the company has publicly listed) but this is an arrangement we will be keeping under review.

	without Pre-emptive Rights		authority that would enable the Board to issue the equivalent of 15% of the share capital without respecting pre-emption rights. To ensure reasonable protection of shareholders, given the dilutive effect of such authorities, we have a strong preference for general authorities which do not apply pre-emption or priority rights to be limited to no more than 5%, unless a clear justification and strategic rationale is provided to shareholders. However, this is a microcap company and the 15% is to aid a speedy raising should it be needed. As the company grows they expect to normalise the level down to a 5-10%.

	Resolution 14. Reappoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC), or its predecessor firms, has been the Group's auditors since its listing in October 1987. Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender of audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, we welcome that in view of the new regulations which mean that PwC would not have been permitted to act as the Group's auditor after 2020, the Audit Committee has decided to tender the audit with a view to changing auditor from FY2016 in line with emerging best practice. This will coincide with the rotation of the current audit partner at the conclusion of the audit for FY2015.

The integrity of the auditor's relationship with the company is compromised when a firm is paid excessive consulting fees on top of those paid for auditing services. However, we note that non-audit fees have come down significantly from 2013/2014, and KPMG replaced Deloitte as the auditors during the year, therefore significantly mitigating any risks and conflicts of interests that may arise from such arrangements.

	Resolution 6. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	A vote for this proposal seeking the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman be an independent director is warranted. Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders.

Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender for audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, the annual report states the new regulatory requirement to rotate the external audit mandate does not affect the Company until 2020 but in any case, in order to ensure the independence and objectivity of the external auditors and avoid a situation where the auditor's familiarity with the Group's affairs results in excessive trust, the Committee maintains a formal Auditor Independence Policy. We are comfortable this explanation for now but would welcome a commitment from the company to Tender earlier than 2020. and FY2015 represent an marked improvement compared to the previous structure. As such we have exceptionally supported but will have no hesitation to vote against next year if the new targets (and particularly those being applied retrospectively) are not challenging. This will be more appropriate as the changes have not yet been made as this vote concerns arrangements for the year under review. It should be noted that we welcome a number of decisions made on executive remuneration arrangements for the year, such as the discretion to reduce bonus payments down to zero, the reduction is LTIP grants to reflect the much lower share price and associated dilution, the fact that annual bonus outcomes will not impact LTIP vesting levels., annual bonuses will be subject to clawback and future LTIP awards will vest in three equal tranches on the third, fourth and fifth anniversaries of the date of grant. Also, both Directors waived their entitlement to a salary increase for FY2015 and their salaries remain unchanged.

	Resolution 13. Reappoint Ernst & Young LLP as Auditors	For (Exceptional)	For the third consecutive year, the non-audit fees exceed 100% of audit fees. However, the Company has confirmed that the non-audit fee of £1.4m for non-audit work relates to advice provided by Ernst & Young consultants in support of the GB Commercial Change Programme (specifically Value Organisation Programme). According to the Company, Ernst & Young were selected for this project in view of their high level of specific expertise for this type of work and were brought in to support it in developing internal capability in this area. According to the annual report, control over non-audit fees is exercised by ensuring non-audit projects, where fees are expected to exceed £50,000, are subject to prior approval of the Audit Committee's Chairman and that of the CFO. If non-audit fees on a certain project are expected to exceed £150,000, prior approval of the Audit Committee is required. Accordingly, an additional meeting was held by the Audit Committee during the year to approve additional non-audit consulting spend with the company's auditors in respect of the final phase of the Value Organisation Programme. The Group has a policy regarding the provision of non-audit services by the external auditors, based on common practice of a maximum audit to non-audit fee ratio of 1:1, except in exceptional circumstances. There will be a transition to this policy with the intention to implement it for FY2015. the bonus paid in the year preceding termination, and any retained bonus approved but unpaid for the year immediately prior to the year in which the Executive Director's contract was terminated. From a UK perspective, the automatic entitlement to a payment linked to a previous bonus is not good practice: payouts on termination should be limited to fixed remuneration only. However, it is recognised that in this case Greencore is affected by Irish employment legislation. The Company has advised us that this could result in executives being entitled to payments of up to two times fixed remuneration. The contracts are drafted to limit the potential of a payment at this level having to be made (for example following legal action if a director contests his termination). Taking the Irish legal context into account, this is not being raised as a voting issue at this company. As this is meant to reduce rather than increase potential payouts, we are not raising this as an issue. There is no mention of clawback for the bonus and, as mentioned, there is no disclosure of targets. LTIP has clawback arrangements for fraud and misconduct. On balance, we are supporting the policy but voting against the remuneration report for the lack of disclosure.

The chair of a company should ideally be independent in order to ensure the appropriate checks and balances on the board and to protect shareholders' interests. However, this role is temporary and linked to the capital restructuring circumstances. On 8 October 2014 the Company's capital restructuring was successfully completed and the search for a new CEO has already commenced. Accordingly, Stephen Billingham will revert to his role as Non-Executive Chairman when a new CEO will be appointed expected in early 2015. Given that this is a temporary arrangement, this combined role is not being raised as concern. It would have been preferable however, for him to have stepped down as a member of the Remuneration Committee whilst he was in his executive role, although we are mindful that his remuneration is only made of a fixed remuneration i.e he does not participate in any incentive arrangement .

Approve Adjustment to the Valid Period of the Issue of Eligible Tier-2 Capital Instruments	For (Exceptional)	The board seeks shareholder approval to extend the validity of the authority to issue eligible tier-2 capital instruments (instruments) until Dec. 31, 2015. On March 20, 2013, the shareholders have approved the issuance of the instruments with write-down feature up to RMB 60 billion, the authority for which is valid until Dec. 31, 2014. In Aug. 2014, pursuant to the authorization and capital replenishment plan, the company has completed the issuance of RMB 20 billion instruments. In order to ensure the smooth issuance of preference share, the bank slowed down the issuance of the remaining RMB 40 billion instruments. The board proposes to extend the validity of the authority to issue instruments in order to improve the company's capital structure and to ensure the capital replenishment plan would be seamlessly implemented. The company has not provided a detailed disclosure on the terms and conditions of the Instruments. The grant of an unconditional mandate to directors to determine the terms and conditions regarding the issuance of debt makes it challenging for shareholders to evaluate whether such terms will be disadvantageous to the company, and its shareholders. However, the Instruments are intended to improve the bank's capital position. we believe that the company should have given more information about the terms and conditions of the instruments but as blocking this resolution may mean they have to issue more tier 1 i.e. equity, we are supporting the resolution.

	Resolution 8. Reappoint Deloitte LLP as Auditors and Authorise Their Remuneration	For (Exceptional)	Deloitte LLP has served as the Company's auditors since September 2003, over 11 years ago. Mandatory auditor rotation (or at least a Tender of Audit services every 10 years) is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. We take note and take comfort from (1) there has been a change in audit partner during the year; (2) consideration is given by the Audit Committee to the work of Deloitte and its independence in deciding whether an audit tender is required (and currently, the committee is satisfied), and (3) audit and non-audit fees are relatively modest. However, we will be again engaging with the company to encourage a firmer commitment to Tender in due course.

Authorise Issue of Equity with Pre-emptive Rights	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would not support resolution 10 and 11 as the amounts proposed under these authorities (92.5% of the issued share capital) significantly exceed recommended limits. However, the Directors intend only to make use of this authority in connection with the issue of shares pursuant to the Placing Programme in order to raise funds to allow the Company to pursue its investment objective and strategy and give effect to its gearing policy, and where there appears to be reasonable demand for shares in the market. The Placing Programme was outlined in the Company's IPO s prospectus dated 26 February 2014 and provided for the Company to issue up to 240 million shares provided that the total number of shares issued pursuant to the Issue and the Placing Programme shall not exceed 300 million. The Company has to date issued 155,855,659 shares pursuant to the Issue and the Placing Programme. It is, therefore, proposed to authorize the Directors to allot shares up to a maximum nominal value of £1,441,443.41 (representing the remaining 144,144,341 shares), which is equal to the unissued balance of 300 million shares under the Issue and the Placing Programme. It is further stated that the Directors currently intend only where there appears to be reasonable demand for shares in the market, for example if the shares trade at a premium to their Net Asset Value per share and any shares issued under the Placing Programme will be issued at a price, as determined by the Directors, which is not less than the prevailing cum income NAV per share. We are supportive given the explanations provided.

Elect David Hamid as Director	For (Exceptional)	The Company states that on appointment, its Chairman David Hamid did not meet the independence criteria referred of the Code, due to his previous appointment as Chairman to the UK subsidiary and his relationship with the business prior to the IPO. However, we agree with the company that whilst he was not technically independent on appointment, his judgement and experience (should) mean that he makes a significant contribution in the role of Chairman which should ensure good Corporate Governance. As such, for now we are supportive but we will be keeping this issue under review.

	Resolution 5. Amend the Performance Conditions Applicable to the Joining Award	For (Exceptional)	The proposal concerns the correction of an error related to the joining share award granted to the CEO in 2012. One of the key points of the negotiation/his appointment was a share award over 500,000 ordinary shares, the purpose of which, together with some other awards, was to buy out awards that he forfeited when he left Paddy Power plc. The understanding reached at that time was that this award would be performance-based, that the relevant vesting criteria would comprise revenue and EPS targets only, and that any effects of regulatory change would be adjusted for – consistent with the Company's then normal practice. In December 2012, Breon Corcoran brought to the Remuneration Committee's attention the fact that the award he received included a TSR component (i.e the award being subject to the same LTIP targets for other employees), and that this differed from the understanding reached when he had decided to leave Paddy Power and join Betfair. No action was taken whilst the Board dealt with the approach to acquire the Company from a consortium led by CVC in April and May 2013. However, following the termination of discussions with CVC, the Company states that the Chairman confirmed in writing to Breon Corcoran the Board's acceptance of the position, and undertook to revert to the original understanding should this be possible, in order to honour the understanding reached. Therefore, following consultation with shareholders, the Company is proposing that the joining award performance conditions be amended so as to remove the TSR component. We are conformable with this explanation and the proposed reinstatement of the original targets. Also, we note the share price was around 710 pence when Breon Corcoran joined and has increased by 210% across the period (so the TSR targets would have no doubt been achieved). However, while it is clearly unfortunate that this miscommunication occurred, and it is understandable that the Company would seek to postpone a resolution until after discussions with CVC had terminated, we question why the Company did not bring this to the attention of shareholders at either the 2013 or 2014 AGMs (held in September of each year). The time it took for this incident to come to the attention of shareholders to be corrected is a concern.

			Also, the Company has experienced a number of situations where it has found itself significantly adrift from expected UK practice in its short life as a listed company. As such, we will be reviewing the Company's ongoing governance arrangements with a particularly careful eye in the run-up to the 2015 AGM.

08/01/2015 UNITED KINGDOM			shareholder to gain control of the company without having to pay a premium for the shares it does not already own. However, in this case we are relatively comfortable as the holding of the concert party, Oaktree Capital Management (UK) LLP will, at the most increase to 32.9% (from 29.99%) of the Company's issued share capital if the company were to make the maximum allowable share buybacks and Oaktree do not participate. Furthermore, at the Company's admission to trading on the London Stock Exchange, the Oaktree Funds' holding in the Company represented 36.9% of the Company's total ordinary share capital so if it wanted to gain control of the company, it wouldn't have sold shares since then. Also, the share repurchase programme is in line with the Company's strategy to return capital to shareholders. As such, we have exceptionally support this Waiver and take comfort that there will be other opportunities to vote against future waivers should Oaktree's holding creep over 35%.
