16/04/2019 ITALY			company. However, we have no record of 2018 vote for this company. It is exposed to environmental risks associated with energy use, water, waste, water and air emissions. We would expect this company to publish quantitative environmental performance covering all operations. The company website provides details of Moncler's initiatives to mitigate energy consumption and CO2 emissions. It also discloses data on direct and indirect CO2 emissions but notes that data includes direct consumption in Italy and Romania only. The company does not provide a response to the CDP 2018. We recommend an exceptional for vote this year to allow a company to improve their disclosure and encourage them to submit carbon data to the CDP.

Shareholders should be able to consider such offers (i.e. by way of a vote at a general meeting) without Board intervention. In addition, the authority would enable the Board to issue the equivalent of 42.44% of the share capital without respecting pre-emption rights. To ensure reasonable protection of shareholders, given the dilutive effect of such authorities, we have a strong preference for general authorities, which do not apply pre-emption or priority rights, to be limited to no more than 20%, unless a clear justification and strategic rationale is provided to shareholders. However, considering the market environment, we are supporting.

Mandatory auditor rotation every 20 years and at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. However, we note that the company has announced a tender process for the mandate of the external audit firm for a proposal to be submitted to the 2020 AGM.

We believe that severance payments should be no greater than 2 times salary only. However, this proposal is considered a positive development considering that the current policy allows for severance package of 1.5 time of the total annual remuneration and a maximum non-compete clause of minimum one year that can be extended to the board discretion. We are therefore supporting this resolution because of the positive amendment.

			shareholders. However, on this occasion, we feel that we could be limiting the ability for the company to manoeuvre. Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) pay out the majority of their income as dividends to remain tax efficient. This means they are not cash rich and will need to come to the market generally when they want to expand their portfolio. We expect the business to do accretive transactions, benefiting shareholder returns. As such, we are comfortable in voting in favour of this occasion.

	Resolution 5.1. Re-elect Josef El-Raghy as Director	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would have voted against the Chairman as he is not independent (having served on the board for 16 years and in an executive capacity) - we consider that in the interests of good governance, the chairman should be independent. However, we have exceptionally supported to reflect that Josef El-Raghy has recently transitioned from his role as Executive Chair to a Non-Executive Chair position, and that this is a temporary arrangement while the Company continues to look for an independent Non-Executive Chair. The process is expected to be completed during 2019. Whilst this is taking longer than we expected, we are comfortable supporting his re-election on this occasion to ensure a smooth transition. We also take comfort from the fact that the majority of directors are independent.

	Resolution 5.4. However, we consider that our main concerns have been satisfactorily addressed following the remuneration policy being rejected by shareholders at the 2018 AGM, together with significant votes against the remuneration report. On a separate issue, we note that he is the nomination committee chair and we have concerns over the lack of women on the Board. However, we note that the Company has issued an RNS announcement on 25 March 2019, informing that, with effect 10 April 2019, Sally Eyre, will be appointed to the Board as a Non-Executive Director and therefore the Board will comprise two females (22%) and seven men (78%). Given these mitigating factors, we have exceptionally supported his re-election but will continue to keep board composition and pay arrangements under close review.

	Resolution 4. Require Independent Board Chairman	For (Exceptional)	Two major components at the top of every public company are the running of the board, and the executive responsibilities of running of the company's business. There should be a clear division between the head of the company, and the chair of the board. When there is no clear division of independence between the executive and board branches of a company, poor executive and/or board actions often go unchecked to the ultimate detriment of shareholders. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted as it seeks the adoption of a policy that requires the board's chairman to be an independent director.

	Resolution 3. Re-elect Vivian Bazalgette as Director	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would have voted against the re-election of this director as they have served on the board for 15 years (we believe that lengthy service can compromise the independence of directors) and the board comprises more than one non-independent director. However, we have exceptionally supported the re-election of Vivian Bazalgette as the Report & Accounts state that he will step down from the Board later this year. This is part of the company's (continuing) commitment to refresh the board composition, especially given that there are currently two directors on the Board who have served for more than 9 years. We note that the other long serving non-executive (Ian Barlow)will only stay on the Board until late 2020 and that the recruitment of new directors will be undertaken in an orderly and balanced way so as to ensure the maintenance of a balance of skills and relevant experience on the Board. Given there is just one woman on the Board we would expect this search to include female candidates.

However, we are mindful that the proposed term is just one year over our preferred term. In addition, we have no concerns about the board's composition and note the high independence levels.

	Resolution 4. Re-elect Kevin Loosemore as Director	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would have voted against this Director as he is the Executive Chair - our preference is for the Chair to be independent to ensure there are sufficient checks and balances on the Board. Further, our understanding was that Kevin Loosemore would be stepping down as Executive Chair following the announcement of the first full year results after completion of the HPE Software transaction expected January 2019. This decision was made to "ensure delivery of the integration". However, given the integration has been much slower than expected (which significantly impacted profits and the share price), the integration is far from complete. Despite the underperformance, we consider it necessary for Kevin Loosemore to continue in this role for the time being. This is because there is a need to ensure continuity and longer term experience of the business and strategy given the amount of management and Board change over the last year. Other factors for our decision to support his re-election are that he has a large shareholding in the Company meaning that his interests are firmly aligned with ours and other shareholders; and that the share price has made a steady recovery since the shock announcement in March 2018.

	Resolution 5. Re-elect Stephen Murdoch as Director	For
	Resolution 6. Elect Brian McArthur-Muscroft as Director	For
	Resolution 7. Re-elect Karen Slatford as Director	For (Exceptional)	In addition to her role as Senior Independent Director (SID) of Micro Focus, Karen Slatford is, or will soon be SID of two other companies (Accesso Technology Group and Alfa Financial Software), and is Chair of another company (Draper Espirit). As such, we are starting to have reservations over how she is able to devote sufficient time to each of her roles. Specifically, we would be expecting her to be spending even more time at Micro Focus given the challenges it has been experiencing. Furthermore, given our concerns over Kevin Loosemore continuing to perform the role of Executive Chair, it is essential that Karen Slatford (as the SID, with separate and defined responsibilities from the Chair) has the capacity to perform this role effectively. Given the amount of board changes / disruption over the last year, we did not consider it appropriate to vote against her re-election at this time. However, we will be engaging with the company for such concerns to be addressed. If we still have reservations in the coming 12 months, it is unlikely that we will support her re-election at the 2020 AGM.

As such, we have reservations over how she is able to devote sufficient time to each of her roles and in this case, Micro Focus, which should be requiring more of her time, given the challenges it has been experiencing. Given the amount of board changes / disruption over the last year, we did not consider it appropriate to vote against her re-election at this time. However, we will be engaging with the company for such concerns to be addressed. Renewables Infrastructure Group Limited GBP Red.Shs EGM 27/03/2019 GUERNSEY	Resolution 1. Authorise Issue of Equity without Pre-emptive Rights in Connection with the Share Issuance Programme	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances, we would have voted against this resolution as the proposed share issuance (equating to 38.2% of the Company's current issued share capital) is significantly dilutive to non-participating shareholders. Shareholders will who do not participate in the Issuance Programme will suffer a dilution up to 28% of their existing percentage holding. However, we have exceptionally supported the proposal based on the following considerations: The Company has provided a commitment that all new ordinary shares issued pursuant to the Share Issuance Programme on a non-pre-emptive basis will be issued at a premium to the NAV per ordinary share; The Company has clearly explained the rationale and use of proceeds of the Share Issuance Programme, noting that the net proceeds of each issue is intended to be used towards repaying debt drawn under the Revolving Acquisition Facility and towards meeting the Outstanding Commitments and/or to make further investments in accordance with the Company's investment policy; The Share Issuance Programme is structured with an open offer element, where shareholders may subscribe for shares proportional to their shareholding; thereby minimizing some impact of dilution.

	Resolution 3. Re-elect Stephen Stone as Director	For (Exceptional)	At last year's AGM, Stephen Stone stepped down as the Company's CEO and was appointed Executive Chair. As part of the Company's ongoing succession planning process, Stephen Stone will then transition to Non-executive Chair in April 2019. As such, the Company is not compliant with the recommendation of the UK Corporate Governance Code that the chair of the board should be independent upon first appointment to the role. However, the Company is following through on the succession plans previously communicated to shareholders, and has previously indicated that Stephen Stone's appointment as Chair would extend no further than three years (i.e a further two years in the non-exec Chair role). We supported this arrangement last year. Also, the Company has made improvements to the governance of the Board to ensure the separation of responsibilities between the role of Executive Chairman and Chief Executive is maintained.

	Resolution 13. Approve Remuneration Report	For (Exceptional)	The Company has not yet established the performance targets for the FY2019 LTIP awards, stating that targets will be disclosed in the regulatory announcement in relation to the grant. The Company explained that they are "continuing their approach of increased scrutiny of shareholder and consensus expectations in relation to incentive plan targets, ensuring incentive plan targets are appropriately stretching against internal and external forecasts. However, this is particularly difficult in the current market environment." Recognising the outlook for performance, it is noted for shareholder awareness that the Company anticipates that the target ranges for the performance measures will be lower than the ranges set for the LTIP granted in 2018. When the performance targets are made available, they will be closely reviewed to evaluate whether they are sufficiently stretching. We will also be reviewing accompanying explanations if Patrick Bergin's salary is increased. As set out in the remuneration report last year, his salary increased £470,000 in March 2018 upon his appointment to CEO. The Company had also previously disclosed that in April 2019, subject to the Committee's review of personal performance, this would potentially increase to £520,000 (+10.6%). Assuming this second increase is awarded, Patrick Bergin's salary rate is set to quickly catch up to a level that is similar to what Stephen Stone earned over a more gradual time frame when he was the CEO. We also note that financial results have been disappointing (in which has been a challenging environment for housebuilders) which has hit the share price.

	Resolution 4.1.2. Elect Karl-Thomas Neumann as Outside Director	For
	Resolution 4.1.3. Elect Robert Allen Kruse Jr. as Outside Director (Shareholder Proposal)	For (Exceptional)	The proposal concerns the adding of two highly qualified candidates as independent directors to the board. The addition of two new directors in conjunction with the expansion of the board size would grow Mobis Board to 11 from the current 9. Under the condition that shareholders approve the expansion of Mobis s board size to 11, Elliott proposed two independent director nominees, Rudolph von Meister and Robert Allen Kruse. We support the election of the two nominees as they have relevant leadership and industry experience, as well as a background in technology and innovation. This would provide added expertise, outside perspective, and a greater sense of responsiveness to shareholder concerns. Their election could further strengthen the company's corporate governance by increasing board independence and oversight.

We support the election of the two nominees as they have relevant leadership and industry experience, as well as a background in technology and innovation. This would provide added expertise, outside perspective, and a greater sense of responsiveness to shareholder concerns. Their election could further strengthen the company's corporate governance. The nominated members will perform key roles in ensuring that the Board fulfills its fiduciary responsibilities and oversee the company's financials and directors performance of duties, and investigates, where necessary, illicit financial behavior on the Board and within management.
	Resolution 5.4. Elect Rudolph William C. Von Meister a Member of Audit Committee (Shareholder Proposal)	For (Exceptional)	Elliott proposed outside director nominees Robert Allen Kruse Jr. (Item 5.3) and Rudolf William C. We disapprove of bundling together proposals that could be presented as separate voting items because this leave us with an all-or-nothing choice, and makes the directors less accountable to shareholders. Furthermore, independent directors represent less than a majority of the Board. However, we have exceptionally supported their re-election as we are mindful that all directors proposed for election are independent and therefore it would be counterproductive to vote against.

Conduct a Scrutiny Pursuant to Section 150 of the Danish Companies Act	For (Exceptional)	Shareholder DRS Belgium SCRL (Deminor) proposes that shareholders approve a resolution to conduct a scrutiny pursuant to section 150 of the Danish Companies Act. We believe that Danske Bank and its stakeholders would benefit from a further transparent impartial investigation. The existing report published by Danish law firm Bruun & Hjejle provides extensive details on the deficiencies in the bank's control mechanisms, the lack of responsiveness throughout the organization, including at the Board level. A further investigation could help further answer outstanding questions of accountability of the management, the board and the auditors, while taking a broad general view of Danske's global activities. We believe that a further audit by an independent scrutinizer will add value to the investigations currently being undertaken by the Danish, Estonian, US DOJ, US SEC and French TGI.

However, Novartis has, over the past two years, improved its remuneration schemes. We specifically note the simplification of the compensation programs through the bonus performance criteria's increased weight to quantitative criteria within the scorecard ; and the change from its existing two long-term incentive programs (Long-Term Performance Plan and Long-Term Relative Performance Plan) into a single incentive program beginning in 2019. In addition, to mitigate for disclosing the LTPP performance targets at the end of the performance cycle only, Novartis will provide information on how financial and innovation based targets are tracking against targets set at the beginning of the cycles. Novartis will also provide an annual relative TSR performance update. Other positive changes include the alignment of the relative TSR vesting schedule so that vesting for peer median underperformance is no longer possible. Novartis has also changed its post-vesting proratisation of remuneration, and retiring Executives should now get pro-rata vesting of equity. Lastly, while Novartis' absolute pay levels are considered high, we welcome the improvements made to its remuneration system, and the fact that its disclosures in the remuneration report exceed market standards, particularly with regard to the retrospective disclosure of performance compensation achievement and the individual disclosure of compensation for executive committee members. We are therefore supporting.

However, we have exceptionally supported as we are mindful that his other Chair role is at an AIM listed company (with a market cap of less than £100m), and as AIM companies do not require as much time from non-executive directors as main market companies, we consider that some flexibility is warranted.

However, we have exceptionally their re-election as we are mindful that their time on the Board is not materially in excess of our guidelines (9 years) and there has been some refreshment of the Board over the last few years. Although given there are five directors who have been on the Board for the same time, we would expect some of them to stand down in due course. Long serving directors should also stand down from key committees. Should this not be the case by the 2020 AGM, we are likely to vote against their re-election to the Board.

Report on Human Rights Risk Assessment Process	For (Exceptional)	NorthStar Asset Management has submitted a precatory proposal requesting that Costco produce an annual report on prison labor use by suppliers. Costco took the positive step of enacting a Prison Labor Policy in 2018. The code states that all employees shall work on a voluntary basis and not be subject to exploitation. The policy outlines the company's policies and procedures for conducting facility audits of its suppliers, and the consequences of code violations. The company does not appear to have faced controversies related to prison labor and it states that prison labor represents only a small fraction of the labor in its supply chain. However, the company could provide more comprehensive data on the use of prison labor in its supply chain, such as quantitative measures of the prevalence of prison labor in its agriculture supply chain or on the results of its facility audits. In 2018, a series of prison labor strikes drew attention to the issue and may have increased the risk to the company of litigation or regulation. A vote FOR this proposal is warranted. Additional reporting on the company's policies addressing use of prison labor would help shareholders assess the level of human rights risk that may be facing the company.

Mandatory auditor rotation every 20 years and at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. We are mindful that the audit was last tendered in 2016, that a retender of the Group audit will occur no later than 2026 and that the PwC audit partner will be required to rotate off the audit following completion of the 2021 audit. However, our view is that given PwC's tenure, the change of audit firm should occur at this time. We raised this issue with the company and welcome its commitment that the re-tender will indeed occur no later than the year ending 30 September 2022, which would coincide with the current PwC partner's rotation off the Audit after completion of the 2021 accounts.

Mandatory auditor rotation every 20 years and at least a Tender for Audit services every 10 years is an effective mechanism for mitigating the potential risks borne by long-term auditor-client relationships, and is a safeguard against improper audits. 	Resolution 2. Approve KPMG LLP as Auditors and Authorize the Manager to Fix Their Remuneration	For
	Resolution 3. Approve Issuance of Equity or Equity-Linked Securities with or without Preemptive Rights	For (Exceptional)	Under normal circumstances we would have voted against this authority as it would enable the Board to issue the equivalent of 20% of the share capital without respecting pre-emption rights. To ensure reasonable protection of shareholders, given the dilutive effect of such authorities, we have a strong preference for general authorities, which do not apply pre-emption or priority rights, to be limited to no more than 10%, unless a clear justification and strategic rationale is provided to shareholders. However, on this occasion, we feel that we could be limiting the ability for the company to manoeuvre. Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) pay out the majority of their income as dividends to remain tax efficient. This means they are not cash rich and will need to come to the market generally when they want to expand their portfolio. We expect the business to do accretive transactions, benefiting shareholder returns. Further, Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) in Singapore are required to distribute at least 90 percent of distributable income to unitholders, among other restrictions which limit them to generate capital internally or raise funds by debt issuance. Given the required percentage of distribution, a limit of 10 percent is deemed to be too restrictive which may impede the REITs' growth in terms of acquisition of properties. As such, we are comfortable in voting in favour of this occasion.

However, we have exceptionally supported his re-election as we are mindful that 10 years is only just over the recommended tenure for a non-executive director. In fact, he was the Chairman up until 13 December 2018 but has temporarily stepped down from the role due to health reasons (David Henderson has been appointed as interim Chairman until Andrew Adcock recovers), and we have a more flexible approach for the Chair (certainly whilst companies are having to get to grips with the new guidelines of the UK corporate governance code regarding the tenure of the Board Chair). Further, we welcome that the Board has started to be refreshed. Specifically, Jane Lewis has recently been appointed as a new independent director, and as stated in the annual report, the Board has initiated a search for a new NED to replace Paul Gadd, who has served on the Board for 9 years. The Board also intends to commence a process to appoint a further non-executive director who will be able to take over from David Henderson as Chairman of the Audit Committee in due course. On a separate point, we note that in addition to his role on this Board, Andrew

All the Company states is that at the end of the FY, the Remuneration Committee noted that substantial progress had been made against the strategic targets. However, we have exceptionally supported to reflect that remuneration arrangements are generally fine (and not excessive) and that outcomes have generally been aligned with performance. For example, the Group has delivered a performance ahead of the Board's expectations and significantly ahead of the prior year and we note that no bonuses or LTIP paid out to the EDs in FY2017.
