Privacy Notice

Personal Information

We collect and use personal information about you so that we can provide you with your investment. This notice explains the most important aspects of how we use your information but you can get more information about the terms we use and view our full privacy policy at www.avivainvestors.com or request a copy by writing to us at the address stated in the “Contacting us” section below.

The data controller(s) responsible for this personal information is Aviva Investors UK Fund Services Limited.

Personal information we collect and how we use it

We will use your personal information:

- To provide you with your investment: we need this to set up and administer your investment,
- To support legitimate interests that we have as a business: we need this to detect and prevent fraud and to help us better understand our customers and improve our customer engagement (this includes marketing),
- To meet any applicable legal or regulatory obligations: we need this to meet compliance requirements with our regulators (e.g. Financial Conduct Authority), to comply with law enforcement and to manage legal claims; and
- To carry out other activities that are in the public interest: for example we may need to use personal information to carry out anti-money laundering checks.

We may also use personal information about other people. This may include individuals who are authorised to act on your behalf, for example, an attorney or (in the case of a corporate investor) individuals who work for or otherwise represent you. If you are providing information about another person we expect you to ensure that they know you are doing so and are content with their information being provided to us. You might find it helpful to show them this privacy notice and if they have any concerns please contact us in one of the ways described below.

The personal information we collect and use will include name, address, date of birth and contact and investment details.

Of course, you don't have to provide us with any personal information, but if you don't provide the information we may not be able to proceed with setting up your investment.

Some of the information we collect as part of this application will be provided to us by third parties and this can include information already held about you within the Aviva Group, information we obtain from publicly available records, our trusted third parties and from industry databases, including fraud prevention agencies and databases.

We do not currently make any decisions based on automatic decision making using your personal information to decide whether we can provide an investment. If in the future we need to make decisions based on automatic decision making, we will inform you about this.

How we share your personal information with others

We may share your personal information:

- With the Aviva Group, our agents and third parties who provide services to us to help us administer our products and services;
- With regulatory bodies and law enforcement bodies, including the police, e.g. if we are required to do so to comply with a relevant legal or regulatory obligation;
- With other organisations including public bodies and the police (either directly or using shared databases) for fraud prevention and detection purposes;

Some of the organisations we share information with directly or indirectly may be located outside of the European Economic Area (“EEA”). We’ll always take steps to ensure that any transfer of information outside of Europe is carefully managed to protect your privacy rights. For more information on this please see our privacy policy or contact us.

How long we keep your personal information for

We maintain a retention policy to ensure we only keep personal information for as long as we reasonably need it for the purposes explained in this notice. We need to keep information for the period necessary to administer your investment and deal with any queries on your investment. We may also need to keep information after our relationship with you has ended, for example to ensure we have an accurate record in the event of any complaints or challenges, carry out relevant fraud checks, or where we are required to do so for legal, regulatory or tax purposes.

Your rights

You have various rights in relation to your personal information, including the right to request access to your personal information, correct any mistakes on our records, erase or restrict records where they are no longer required, object to use of personal information where this use is based on our legitimate business interests. For more details in relation to your rights, including how to exercise them, please see our full privacy policy or contact us.

Contacting us

If you have any questions about how we use personal information, or if you want to exercise your rights stated above, please contact our Data Protection Officer by writing to them at The Data Privacy Office, Aviva Investors, 80 Fenchurch Street, London EC3M 4AE or email dpoffice@avivainvestors.com

If you have a complaint or concern about how we use your personal information, please contact us in the first instance and we will attempt to resolve the issue as soon as possible. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office at any time.

Marketing – How we keep you informed

The Aviva Group and its agents may use personal information we hold about you across the Aviva Group to help us identify and tailor products and services that may be of interest to you and would like to contact you from time to time to provide you with updates and offers for Aviva’s products and services tailored to you by direct marketing by post, phone, email or text. We may continue to do this after your investment has ended.

To tell us if you would prefer not to hear about Aviva products and services please contact us at Aviva, Freepost, Mailing Exclusion Team, Unit 5, Wanlip Road Ind Est, Syston, Leicester, LE7 1PD.
