decisions.

The Investment Manager aims to identify both sustainability leaders and corporate and sovereign entities that have the potential and commitment to improve. It does this by excluding companies using our Baseline Exclusions Policy and utilising a suite of ESG data tools alongside qualitative research generated by the Investment Manager's large, dedicated team of in-house ESG specialists. The Investment Manager will help catalyse and drive the required transition by using a variety of levers, including voting, engagement and what it calls "macro stewardship," which is engaging with regulators, governments and other entities to "change the rules of the game," in favour of those businesses that are providing solutions to sustainability problems or supporting the transition to a sustainable future.

The Investment Manager's responsible investment philosophy is to invest in the transition to a more sustainable future and, in particular, to promote the relative merits of engagement over divestment. The Investment Manager will therefore seek to identify and invest in companies that are either focused on delivering sustainability solutions, exhibit the highest standards of corporate behaviour (when measured against national and international norms, see below) or are transitioning and evolving to become more sustainable and responsible.

The Investment Manager believes that for the Sub-Funds that it manages adopting a purely exclusions-based approach or simply investing in today's sustainability leaders would limit the Investment Manager's ability to shape a sustainable future and not help to enable the transition to a low carbon economy. Real change requires a radical overhaul of the world's economy and industries and investors must be willing to support and be fully engaged in the transition from "brown" to "green." Creating a "better tomorrow" means we must play our part as investors in helping "today's world" become better.

The Investment Manager also notes that the rise of ESG investing with a narrow focus on "green" companies has in many cases triggered inflated valuations which may ultimately undermine sustainability objectives and generate suboptimal outcomes for clients.

Please refer to the ESG Screening Impact appendix to this notice, which provides an overview of ESG considerations that may apply to each Sub-Fund.

Further information on Aviva Investor's approach to Article 8 is available on the Aviva Investors' website under EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation.

If you do not accept these changes, you may request free of charge redemption or conversion of your shares into any of the other sub-funds of the Fund until 30 June 2022, under the conditions described in the Prospectus.

An updated version of the Prospectus dated July 2022 reflecting the change referred to above will soon be available, free of charge, upon request, at the registered office of the Fund.

Capitalised terms not defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in the prospectus of the Fund.

If you have any further questions about any aspect of the changes mentioned above, please contact Aviva Investors Luxembourg S.A. on the following number; +352 40 28 20 1.

The data in this table is provided for information purposes only and should be read in conjunction with the provided investor notice, dated 27 May 2022.

Data shown as of 29 April 2022 indicating where there is a material impact of the approach on the investment strategy.

⁽²⁾ Data provided for informational purposes only and should be used in conjunction with the product prospectus.
