AVIVA INVESTORS APPOINTS EMMA HALLEY AS HEAD OF INVESTMENT PROCESS, MULTI-ASSET AND MACRO

(London) – Aviva Investors, the global asset management unit of Aviva PLC, today announces the appointment of Emma Halley as Head of Investment Process for Multi-asset and Macro. Based in London, she reports to Peter Fitzgerald, Chief Investment Officer, Multi-asset and Macro.

In this new role, Emma will be responsible for the generation, structuring and completion of new ideas across Aviva Investors' multi-asset portfolios, with a particular focus on its Multi-Strategy (AIMS) range. Emma will maximise collaboration across investment teams by co-ordinating key areas of focus for discussion at the Multi-Strategy team's weekly investment meetings as well as the firm-wide Strategic Investment Group forum.

Emma joins from Fulcrum Asset Management, where she was Head of Portfolio Management, responsible for the consistent application of investment process across over $4.5 billion of absolute return strategies. Prior to this, she spent four years in the Global Fixed Income team at Schroders.
