Important

Your Duty - You are under a duty to answer all questions, which we ask, honestly and with reasonable care. The answers in this proposal form, declaration and any other document provided by you to us for this insurance must be true and complete. This is for your own protection because, if you do not give us all the information we need, your policy may not provide you with the cover you need, a claim may not be paid, the policy could be declared invalid and void or may be cancelled, and you may encounter difficulty trying to purchase insurance elsewhere.

Additional Duty of Disclosure for Non-Consumer Customers

PLEASE NOTE - IF YOU ARE NOT A CONSUMER (AS DEFINED BELOW) THE FOLLOWING DUTY ALSO APPLIES.

In addition to the above, you must also tell us about any other facts, which are likely to affect whether we agree to provide cover, or how we assess the risks proposed for insurance.

If you are not sure whether you should tell us about something, please tell us anyway. This is for your own protection because, if you do not give us all the information we need:-

- your policy may not provide you with the cover you need;
- a claim may not be paid;
- your policy could be declared invalid and void or may be cancelled;
- you may encounter difficulty trying to purchase insurance elsewhere, and
- you may breach the terms and conditions attaching to any loan.

Consumer Definition:

Consumer means a 'consumer' as defined by section 2(1) of the Financial Services and Pension Ombudsman Act 2017. For the avoidance of doubt, the definition of 'consumer' shall include:

- a natural person, not acting in the course of business,
- a sole trader, partnership, trust club or charity (not being a body corporate), with an annual turnover in its previous financial year (within the meaning of section 288 of the Act of 2014) of €3 million or less, or
- an incorporated body that had
 - an annual turnover in its previous financial year (within the meaning of section 288 of the Act of 2014) of €3 million or less, and
 - is not a body corporate that is a member of a group of companies (within the meaning of section 8 of the Act of 2014) with a combined annual turnover (in the previous financial year (within the meaning of section 288 of the Act of 2014) of the group of companies), of greater than €3 million.

The law that applies to the contract - Under the relevant European and Irish laws, we Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC and you, the proposer, are free to choose the law that will apply to the contract. We propose that Irish law will apply to the contract. We, Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC, will provide the insurance under this policy.

Complaints procedure - We aim to give excellent service to all our customers; however, we recognise that things may occasionally go wrong. We will do our best to deal with your complaint as effectively and quickly as possible. If you arranged your cover through an intermediary or broker, please send your complaint to them. If your complaint is not sorted out to your satisfaction, please contact:

Reinsurers will use Your data to decide whether to provide reinsurance cover, assess and deal with reinsurance claims and to meet legal obligations. They will keep Your data for the period necessary for these purposes and may need to disclose it to other companies within their group, their agents and third-party service providers, law enforcement and regulatory bodies;
- In the event of any contemplated or actual reorganisation, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of Our business, assets or stock (including any insolvency or similar proceedings); and
- To meet any legal obligation, including to the relevant ombudsman if a complaint has been made about the product or service We have provided.

5B. Transfer of Personal Data outside EEA

Some of the organisations with whom We share information with are located outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) including India. These locations may not provide an adequate level of protection. We'll always take steps to ensure that any such transfer of information is carefully managed to protect privacy rights and such measures will be in line with the requirements of European Data Protection Laws. For more information on this, please see Our Privacy Policy or contact Us in one of the ways described overleaf. We will not disclose Your personal data to parties who are not authorised to process it.

5C. How We share Your personal information with others for fraud prevention

The data You provide will be used by Us and shared with other insurers as well as certain statutory and other authorised bodies for anti-fraud purposes including:

- sharing information about You with other insurers, public bodies and the Gardaí;
- private investigators, tracing debtors or beneficiaries, recovering debt, managing Your accounts and/or insurance policies; and
- undertaking fraud searches on publicly available information as outlined above and where applicable checking the Insurance Industry claims database, Insurance Link. For more information on Insurance Link please go to www.inslink.ie. This database helps insurers check claims information and prevent fraudulent claims.

6. Credit searches

For commercial policies, We may carry out credit searches against the policyholder through third parties who provide Us with credit information.

7. Online information

When You visit one of the Aviva Group websites, We may record information about Your computer or mobile device, including hardware and software used, general location, when and how You interact with Our websites. This information is used to note Your interest in Our websites, improve customer journeys.

8. How long We keep personal information for

We maintain a Data Retention Policy to ensure We only keep personal information for as long as We may reasonably need it for the purposes explained in this notice. We keep information for the period necessary to manage Our business or as required by law or contract. We may also need to keep information for example to ensure We have an accurate record in the event of a complaint or to defend legal claims, carry out relevant fraud checks, or where We are required to do so for legal, regulatory or tax purposes. We will not retain personal data longer than necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected or to fulfil legal obligations, or as permitted by law.

The individual retention periods depend on the type of personal data and the purpose of its processing. Information submitted for a quotation may be retained by Us for a period of up to 15 months from the date of the quotation. Where You purchase a product from Us, information will be held for the duration of the cover and for at least 7 years after our business relationship has ended in order to comply with applicable laws and regulations and where applicable for use in connection with any claims. Afterwards, We will delete the personal data.

For more information on Our data retention policies please see Our Privacy Policy or contact Us – refer to the details in the “Contacting us” section overleaf.

9. Your rights in relation to Your personal information

You have various rights in relation to Your personal information, including: -

- the right to request access to Your personal information;

- correct any mistakes on Our records;
- erase or restrict records where they are no longer required;
- object to use of personal information based on legitimate business interests including profiling and marketing or public interests;
- ask not to be subject to automated decision making⁴ if the decision produces legal or other significant effects on You;
- move (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) certain data to other providers (data portability).

Where We rely on Your consent as Our legal basis for the use of Your personal data You have a right to withdraw Your consent to such use.

Note: You have the right to object to use of personal information based on legitimate business interests. If You do object, We will have an opportunity to demonstrate that there are compelling legitimate grounds which override Your rights and freedoms or that processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Please note that any successful objection may prevent Us assessing future claims and/or the Policy may be cancelled.

For more details in relation to Your rights, including how to exercise them, please see Our full Privacy Policy or contact Us in one of the ways described overleaf.

10. Contacting Us

If You have any questions about how We use personal information, or if You want to exercise Your rights stated above, please contact Our Data Protection team by either emailing them at DPO@aviva.com, writing to the Data Protection Officer, Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC, One Park Place, Hatch Street, Dublin 2, Ireland, D02 E651 or call Us at (01) 898 8000.

If You have a complaint or concern about how We use Your personal information, please contact Us in the first instance and We will attempt to resolve the issue as soon as possible. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission at any time.

11. Changes to Our Data Protection Notice

Occasionally, it may be necessary to make changes to this Data Protection Notice and/or the Privacy Policy for example to keep it up to date or to comply with legal requirements, and any such amended Data Protection Notice will only apply from the time of amendment.

The most recent version will always be available on Our website. Please review Our full Privacy Policy each time You use Our website or avail of Our services.
