Mental Health Consultation

It's good to talk. Access consultations with qualified mental health therapists

Mental health is as important as physical health, and it's just as important to get some care and support when we feel as though it's a struggle to cope with everything that life can throw at us.

Getting help early can help play a big part in tackling mental health issues. Download the Aviva DigiCare+ Workplace app and you'll have the opportunity to get tailored advice from a mental health professional by video or phone, on average within 48 hours.

This service can help with all types of issues, from workplace stress to money worries, family conflict to divorce, big life changes to dealing with family history and more. It also offers a bereavement service to support those eligible who have lost someone close to them.
