

Get Active

FAQs

Q Which health and fitness clubs can I use?

A We have teamed up with Incorpore Limited who provide access to discounts and offers at a network of gyms and health clubs across the UK and Ireland, including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. With over 3,000 gyms in the network, there are many different brands, including large chain health clubs you may already have heard of and a number of independent centres too.

Q I don't really use the gym. Are there any other offers available through Get Active?

A Yes. Once you have logged in, you can click through to MyWellbeingDiscounts to find a whole host of other discounted products and services that can help you keep healthy and get active. Offers such as outdoor pursuits, food delivery services, protein shakes or energy bars, fitness clothing and equipment, spa breaks, online fitness classes and more. MyWellbeingDiscounts also includes a Cancer Care section, providing discounts on products and services that could help with the daily adjustments a cancer diagnosis and treatment can bring.

Q How much discount can I get?

A The discount varies across clubs and there are variable discounts for the products and services featured in MyWellbeingDiscounts. You can also benefit from regular flash sales and seasonal offers featured on the site. If you would like to remain informed of these, there is the option to sign up to an e-newsletter when you enter MyWellbeingDiscounts.

Q Do I have to be an Aviva policyholder to get the discounts?

A Yes. You need to have an active insurance policy with Aviva that includes eligibility to access Get Active. Your policy literature will detail Get Active in the Wellbeing section if you are eligible to access the service.

Whilst Get Active is only available to eligible insurance policy members, they can access offers and discounts that can benefit all of the family, such as experience days, fitness clothing, meal delivery services and most health clubs extend discounts to partners and spouses.

Q What happens if I want to cancel my gym membership?

A Once you sign up to a membership with a health club, gym or a provider of any of the services featured, the terms of the contract will be with that specific provider. The cancellation period will be within the terms of the contract you sign. It is important to view all terms and conditions and privacy policies of any gyms, clubs or retailers before you sign up.
