

If you've had a motor incident, don't park it.

Tell us about it straight away.

It's always better to speak to us straight away, when it's fresh in your mind – even if your employer doesn't plan on making a claim, or if there was no visible damage. Tell us what's happened and let us know the other driver's contact details if you can.

The sooner we know, the sooner we can help:

- get you back on the road quickly
- reduce the opportunity for insurance fraud
- manage the cost of the claim.
